LIONS HONOR 40 LETTERMEN

About 100 attended a banquet Wednesday evening at Bermudian Springs High School at which about 40 school letter winners were honored. The annual affair was sponsored jointly by the Lions Clubs of East Berlin and York Springs.

Guest speaker was Cameron Ralston, Harrisburg lecturer, who urged the young people "to think for yourselves in a day when many outside forces are trying to make decisions for you."

Dr. Robert Potts, president of the East Berlin Lions, congratulated the letter winners and the Rev. Amos D. Meyers, president of the York Springs Lions, served as the toastmaster.

The young people who were the guests of honor had won letters in boys' and girls' basketball, baseball, football and track and as cheerleaders.

Coaches were introduced by the high school athletic directors: Glenn Kemper, and the coaches presented the lettermen. The coaches introduced included Miss Wilma Schierer girls' basketball; Glenn Gruver, boys' basketball; and John Smarsh, track. Lettermen in the other sports were introduced by Mr. Kemper in the absence of other coaches. A roast beef dinner was served by the high school cafeteria staff.

WHITE HOUSE FIGHTS CLAY ON AID SLICES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration is making it known that it does not agree with Gen. Lucius D. Clay's recommendations for further cuts in foreign aid program.

For David Bell, foreign aid chief, has written a memorandum stating that the entire $4.5 billion President Kennedy has requested for foreign assistance in the coming year is needed, despite Clay's urging for additional reductions.

Clay, chairman of a presidential advisory committee on foreign aid, has been testifying at congressional committee hearings on the Kennedy request for the coming fiscal year starting July 1.

Clay has said the amount could be shaved to $4.3 billion, or perhaps to $4 billion, if certain economies are made in the Alliance for Progress program.

Officials said Wednesday night that Bell had sent copies of the memo to Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other high ranking authorities in the State and Defense Departments and in Bell's own Agency for International Development.

The reason for Bell's document, it was stated, is not to take issue with Clay, but to explain to responsible officials what AID's stand is on a foreign aid figure and why.

EASTER SEAL

Chambersburg. Transportation to hospitals also will be provided.

It was announced that the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority at Gettysburg College has donated $90 to be used for summer camping expenses for crippled children from this county. There was an offer from the Kappa Delta Rho Fraternity at the college to help at the hospital center at the Warner Hospital and resulting discussion brought suggestions that the fraternity help with recreation work for the crippled youngsters under treatment there.

USING SEAL MONEY

The directors transferred $2,500 from the Easter Seal account to the general fund for use in society work during the summer.

It was announced that Donald Bowers, New Oxford, once under the care of the society as a handicapped child, will be on the kitchen staff at Camp Harmony Hall to be operated this summer by the state society.

The current report for the treatment center at the Warner Hospital showed that from March 1 to the present there have been 150 treatments there. Mrs. Franklin Bigham, Mrs. Robert MacAskill and Mrs. Norman Richardson were thanked for providing transportation to the center. Miss Ellen Miller has volunteered to help on transportation during the summer.

President Meyers appointed Miss Miller as chairman of the nominating committee to report in September and named these other persons to the committee: Attorney Edward B. Bullett, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Jesse Dagenhart and Mrs. Harvey Harmon.

CANNER TRACK TEAM BOWS AT WAYNESBORO

Biglerville High School's track squad suffered a 77-47 lacing at Waynesboro Tuesday afternoon, the meet being advanced from its original scheduled date of Wednesday.

Tom Roschel, Senior, sparked the Indians to their triumph with three victories, triumphing in the shot-put, discus and javelin.

Dick Dull, star Canner javelin thrower, took one practice toss and complained of his elbow hurting. Since the outcome of the meet had already been decided he did not take part in the event.

Biglerville will take part in the Blue Mountain Conference meet on the Gettysburg College field Saturday.

HOPE TO SOLVE RACE PROBLEM IN JOINT MEET

ENGLEWOOD, N.J. (AP) — A nonstop meeting is planned tonight to untangle differences and possibly find a solution to the problem of this troubled community's racially imbalanced school system.

The conciliation committee of the Englewood Ministerial Association called the meeting. The committee composition is five protestant ministers—three white and two Negro—and a rabbi.

"We propose that this session stay in continuous conference until some compromise solution is found," the committee said. The meeting is to be closed.

The furor over integration efforts continued today with a group of Negro parents planning to return their children for the fourth straight day to the predominantly white Cleveland Elementary School. The children, barred from registering in the school, were permitted to enter classes as unregistered for the first time Monday because school officials feared possible violence.

The number of children participating in the sit-in has increased daily, with 26 Negro youngsters filling into various classes Wednesday.

It was a new technique in a long-time effort to register the Negro children in the three elementary schools here that are nearly all white. Englewood's other two elementary schools are predominantly Negro.

SORORITY SECRETARY

Miss Carol S. Bosserman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Bosserman, E. York St., Biglerville, a Sophomore at Grove City College, Grove City, Pa., has been elected secretary of Sigma Delta Phi Sorority for next year. She is majoring in German and is a member of chapel choir and touring choir.

Milt Papas began the 1963 season with a career record of seven shutouts for the Baltimore Orioles.

Local Soldier In Overseas Exercise

A/S4 Rufus W. Reaver Jr., 19, son of Mrs. Merle L. Hankey, R. 2, took part in exercise "Grand Slam II" this week with other members of the 42d Artillery Group in Germany.

Elements of the Canadian, French and German armed forces also participated in the exercise which was designed to test plans and procedures of NATO forces assigned to Central Europe.

Reaver, who arrived overseas last October, is a radio operator in the group's Headquarters Battery in Germany.

The 1961 Gettysburg high school graduate entered the Army in July, 1961, and completed basic training at Fort Dix, N.J. His father resides at 420 W. High St.

MRS. HARTMAN

Orrtanna

MRS. LUTHER WETZEL

ORRTANNA — Family night was observed Saturday evening in the Mt. Carmel EUB Church hall by the Women's Society of World Service of the Church at this monthly meeting.

The meeting was prefaced by a covered dish meal to which all members of the church were invited. Following the supper the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Dale Wetzel, who discussed a few business projects but the business part of the meeting was eliminated and the leader, Mrs. Edd Spence, opened the meeting with a hymn after which the scripture was read by Mrs. Paul Wetzel Mrs. Claire Robert offered the opening prayer.

The following members took part in the program entitled "He That Hath Ears": Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Gotwalt, Mrs. Dale Wetzel, Mrs. Wendell Wetzel, Mrs. Claire Robert, Mrs. John Gallagher and Mrs. Clyde Metz; duet, "When Mother Prayed," by the Misses Carol Wetzel and Virginia Spence; poems, "A Mother's Request" and "Mothers of Men," Mrs. Claire Robert; closing prayer, Rev. Gotwalt; Mrs. Clyde Metz was the piano accompanist. The downs.

decorations symbolized the home state missions. A small tree was displayed upon which the picture of the state bird rested among various other red birds depicting the red bird missions of Kentucky, Florida and New Mexico. All the states were pictured. The meeting was well attended by members and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Short and family have moved from the Claude Fissel property on R. 1 to the Cleason Herring property, also on Orrtanna R. D., recently vacated by the Donald McDannell family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weaver, Hagerstown, Md., and their son, Robert Jr., a student at Towson, Md., College, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Papp.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lochbaum and J. C. Lochbaum had as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jay Biesecker and children, Jay Jr., Paula and Dorothy, of Florin. Sunday evening guests of the Lochbaums were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brubaker and family, Chambersburg R. 5.

West Virginia expects fine quarterbacking next fall from Jerry Yost. As a junior he passed for 1,134 yards and 11 touchdowns.

John D. Crawford, Jr., of Baltito be the first commissioned officer in this war to have become a member of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, a national organization whose sole requirement of admission is to have been awarded the Purple Heart medal for wounds received in battle.Lt. Crawford, who is a cousin of David J. Forney of Gettysburg, and well known here, also is a holder of the Silver Star decoration with Oak Leaf cluster for conspicuous gallantry in combat in the Battle of Midway and the Solomon Islands.A navigator in an Army Air Force Flying Fortress that scored "a couple of hits on a Jap cruiser" at Midway, he was wounded for the first time when 15 or 20 Japs Zeros attacked his ship which had become detached from the American formation.Twice he has had to abandon planes and once spent two days floating in a rubber life raft without food or water.

Will Gettysburg have a Cham## ber of Commerce?

That question will be answered next Friday evening when the membership committee, extending its drive another week, submits its final report to the Board of Directors.If sufficient Gettysburg merchants, retailers and wholesalers, professional and non-professional, and other individuals enroll, the Board will vote a continuance of the Chamber.If the returns do not justify a continuance of the civic group the Chamber of Commerce will pass out of existence.Gettysburg holds innumerable possibilities but these possibilities require an organized effort and group to bring them into fruition for the common good and benefit of every one.Anything that benefits the town benefits everyone... even to the smallest and most insignificant little fellow.A new dollar makes the rounds of every one.But who will bring in the new dollar?The only nationally recognized civic group is a Chamber of Commerce and the outside world recognizes this group as an important factor in every community.

Today's Talk

EVERY END A BEGINNING

Emerson once wrote that all events traveled in circles and that even a circle could be encircled by another circle!Every task has an end — yet that very end becomes a beginning!There can be no greater objective than that of completeness, even though actually such an objective can never be attained.Nearly every great and outstanding success is made up of hundreds — often thousands — of failures. Each one of those failures embodied a starting point, or beginning of a final success.If things seem dark to you now
— if it seems to be swept away from your path — bear this in mind: Every end is a beginning!Civilization has advanced only by the ending of something that didn't work, or that needed repair and revision. Nothing can have any permanence by standing still. The "old order" is forever changing. In the end that change has to be for the better, else the very order itself is sure to fall apart.The hours of life are too precious to be used up in useless regrets. Spend no time bemoaning the end of everything. Think in beginnings! Therein, alone, lies personal and world progress.From end is a beginning. Keep this face ever in mind. Relight the fires of your nature. Be stimulated by new plans, new attempts, new visions and new courage."The new broom sweeps well," as the old adage goes, but so does a regenerated man drive a man ahead and give to his entire nature a healthy stimulus.A man is never through until he is through with himself. No end is definite, but everything is! Beginnings always inspire. They stir the imagination and arouse the soul! They breed ideas and enthusiasm, without which no worthwhile task is possible.Never mind the end. Think of the new beginning!Tomorrow's subject: "One Thing at a Time."Protected, 1963, by The George

THINGS

He gathered treasures here and there and built his life around them.He loved to show his trinkets rare and tell you where he'd found them.These lovely drapes from Persia came from Nottingham these laces.And then he'd talk with eyes afire of quaint and far-off places.In things he found his greatest pride, in things his life was written.His love for them he could not hide, by things his heart was smitten.He fondled them from day to day and made them his obsession.He would not let them get away one hour from his possession.Rare bits of beauty pleased his soul, old bronzes him delighted.He loved the ancient and the droll, to them his love was pledged;And none could buy his trinkets rare, on none would he bestow them.The more he saw them gleaming there the more he joyed to show them.He spent his life in gathering things, a selfish love, though gentle.His years were spent for clocks and rings and tokens sentipride? Did love of beauty blind him?He valued things, but when he died he left them all behind

GOP LEADERS WILL DINE AT $1,000 A PLATE

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican leaders from around the country dine tonight at $1,000 a plate—and take a new look at a couple of potential presidential nominees.Gov. George Romney of Michigan and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona will have a chance to show their political wares at the dinner, which party officials hope will raise more than $400,000 for the 1964 congressional campaigns.The gathering also provides an opportunity for informal discussion among the party leaders about the political future of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

ROCKY SENDS CHECK

He had been considered almost a sure bet for next year's GOP presidential nomination until doubts were thrown on his prospects by his divorce 14 months ago and his marriage last Saturday to a divorcee, Margaretta Fittler Murphy.He canceled out of tonight's dinner because he's honeymooning in Venezuela. However, he sent in his check for $1,000.Romney is down to make one of the brief speeches at the dinner, while Goldwater will be the guest of honor. Originally the dinner was billed as a "salute to Goldwater," honoring him as former chairman of the GOP Senatorial Campaign Committee.

CHANGE TITLE

But later the title was changed to "salute to the Senate"—apparently in the interests of party unity.There was no sign that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower would attend the affair.Eisenhower has not publicly proclaimed his choice for the nomination; he has said merely that he would support the man
the Republican convention chooses.Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania will not attend because of prior commitments in his home state.

JFK KEEPING CLOSE WATCH ON ALABAMA

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy kept a close watch today on a shaky truce in racially troubled Birmingham, Ala.The President hailed at his news conference Wednesday the government induced accord that temporarily halted integration demonstrations in the city. And he made clear that he prefers limiting Washington's role to conciliation.There have been no federal violations, the President said, and so "our efforts have been focused on getting both sides together to settle in a peaceful fashion."Still, it is known that if the truce snaps—it did for a few hours Wednesday night — the White House has considered several ways of getting deeper into the crisis.

DISCUSS POSSIBLE STEPS

Before the news conference, the White House announced that "every avenue of executive authority is being explored with reference to racial difficulties in Birmingham, Ala."While Andrew Hatcher, assistant White House press secretary, did not amplify this announcement, it was learned that the President's civil rights advisers were discussing several possible ways of federal intervention.

These included:

1. The filing of a federal suit challenging the constitutionality of Birmingham's public segregation ordinances. This would be done by Negro leaders in cooperation with the Justice Department and Birmingham merchants.2. A dramatic visit to Birmingham by a high official of the federal government.

MANY AVENUES OPEN

3. The seeking of a federal injunction by the Justice Department barring Birmingham police from interfering with the Negro demonstrations. This would be sought under the First Amendment guaranteeing the right of free speech and assembly.4. The federalization of the Alabama National Guard to keep it out of the hands of Gov. George Wallace, a staunch segregationist.5. A threat by the federal government to withhold certain federal funds from Alabama.6. Intervention by the President under the civil rights laws passed by Congress in the post-Civil War

Night Clubs, Hotels Are Hard Hit By New Tax Law

By RALEIGH ALLSBROOK

NEW YORK (AP)—Dwindling business blamed mainly on changes in income tax expense account deductions has given the hotel and restaurant industry a king-sized headache.In addition to eliminating many deductions previously allowed on grounds business was involved, the rules, according to hotel and restaurant people, are so confusing no one is sure what they mean.Businessmen consequently have put the brakes on expense account spending.

MORE PRICE CONSCIOUS

Hardest hit are night clubs and the more expensive eating places — where a customer might be entertained or a deal negotiated—and the big hotels, catering to convention crowds.Unemployment among workers in the industry is steadily rising in many cities.People are becoming more price conscious. They are ordering heavier dishes, fewer drinks and looking at the tab more carefully.
Some big spenders are becoming little spenders.The ultra-smart spots with exotic foods, some predict, will have to tone down or go out of business.

OTHER FACTORS TOO

Although the new tax regulations are catching most of the blame, other factors also mentioned by some persons. These include general retrenchment following the stock market decline last year, competition from motels, overbuilding of hotels and increased air travel and superhighway building, making it possible for people to visit other cities and return the same day without an overnight stop.Complaints that the slump is having a critical effect come from every direction."It's hurting, and hurting bad," said a spokesman for the Tennessee Restaurant Association, which reports business off 6 to 15 per cent. "It likely will get worse before it levels off."

"Collapse is a good way to explain it," complained manager
Joe B. Callihan of the Benson Hotel in Portland, Ore., which has been affected "seriously." "The traveling people no longer bring their wives."

CALLS IT "COLLAPSE"

"Restaurants are cutting expenses every place they can—entertainment, food, help, even turning off more lights," said Sherman Billingsley, owner of New York's Stork Club. "The business will never be the same again."His business is off 30 to 40 per cent and he said half of the restaurants in New York would have to close if their creditors decided to clamp down on overdue food and beverage bills.

14 COLLEGES ASK FOR MORE APPROPRIATION

HARRISBURG (AP) — Representatives of the Commonwealth's 14 state colleges told the joint House-Senate Appropriations Committee Wednesday they need $500,000 more than the $15.9 million recommended for them during the 1963-64 fiscal year.

Ralph B. Helges, president of Shippensburg State College, told the lawmakers:

"The budget as programmed by the governor pinches us all in equipment expenditures. Salaries alone don't keep our good instructors with us. We need about one-half million dollars more for both salaries and adequate equipment for current operations."

ALL SEEK MORE

Helges was among several educators who testified at hearings into recommended spending by the Scranton administration. The governor has submitted a budget of $1.121 billion which would require $139 million in new taxes.

Dean William Kellow of the Hahnemann Medical College of Philadelphia represented the committee of deans of the six medical schools in the state—Hahnemann, Women's Medical College, Temple, Jefferson, Pittsburgh and University of Pennsylvania.

The medical schools asked for a new state appropriation of $8.1 million, up $872,780 from the current subsidy. The request was based on an average of $3,000 per medical student. This year the schools received $7.3 million—an average of $2,900 per student.

Chancellor Edward H. Litchfield of the University of Pittsburgh asked the committee for its support in a $3.6 million request.

The Pitt request was some $470,000 higher than what the school received this year.

Temple University made a pitch for a $5.6 million appropriation. The Scranton administration has requested $4.8 million for the institution — which represents a $631,409 increase over the current grant.

President Millard E. Gladfelter raised the possibility of a tuition increase if the extra $350,000 was not forthcoming.

President Gaylord P. Harnwell of the University of Pennsylvania said his institution was content with the governor's recommendation of a $4.2 million appropriation—up $549,385 from this year.

TVA Is 30 But Still Hotly Disputed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Franklin D. Roosevelt hadn't been in the White House two months before he asked Congress to approve a plan he had to develop the Tennessee Valley.

He asked that the job be handled by a federal agency "clothed with the power of government." And on May 18, 1933 — just 30 years ago this month — President Roosevelt signed a bill which Congress had dutifully passed, creating the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA).

TVA became one of the most admired, and most objected-to, of all the agencies born of the New Deal.

TVA is now world famous, especially for its production of abundant public power, cheap to the consumer. More than 2,000 foreign representatives, ranging from high government officials to students, inspected it in the last fiscal year.

FROM 70 COUNTRIES

The foreigners came from more than 70 countries and most of those who had anything to say publicly had words of praise.

It hasn't been all that way at home. Here, TVA and its public power program have been praised and damned in equally fervent terms.

Unfair competition for free enterprise! its critics have shouted. Democracy on the march! its backers have proclaimed. One president, Dwight D. Eisenhower, called it "creeping socialism."

A place where few criticisms are heard is along the Tennessee River itself. There the people support such words as these, from Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., who served on the Senate-House conference committee which put the TVA legislation in final shape in 1933:

BEAUTIFUL LAKES

"A unified plan has transformed the river into a chain of beautiful and productive lakes. 'It has promoted the prosperity of the people, added to their security, multiplied their resources for enjoyment. 'It has brought new beauty to the valley. It has brought strength to the nation.'"

There is no question but that the valley people are vastly better off, thanks to TVA. The question critics raise is whether it has been proper to use federal taxes from all over the nation to help build TVA; there has been no end to the arguing over that.

Here are some of the growth figures TVA is happy to report: Nearly 1.3 million consumers use TVA power, five times as many as had electricity in the same area in 1933.

Ninety-eight per cent of the region's farms are electrified as compared with 3.5 per cent in 1933.

Residential consumers pay less than half as much per kilowatt hour as do those in the nation as a whole — they use twice as much power.

TVA's multiple-purpose dams, its forestry and agricultural aids and its service to industry have helped bring about a 745 per cent increase in the per capita income of the people in the region since 1933; in the nation the increase has been 493 per cent (see map).

In 1933 there were no atomic energy plants in the valley; today these plants use much more electricity in a month than the entire area used for the whole year 1933.

About 12,000 miles of high voltage transmission lines carry TVA power to 385 substations which supply 102 municipal electric systems, 51 rural electric cooperatives, and two small private utilities. TVA power goes direct to a few industries and to such government installations as the atomic energy plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Paducah, Ky.

TVA Dams have created a series of slack water lakes navigable for 650 miles from Paducah to Knoxville, Tenn. River traffic ton-mileage is 65 times what it was before TVA.

TVA reservoirs have up to 12 million acre-feet of storage space which makes possible the reduction of floods in the valley and helps control floods on the lower Ohio river and the Mississippi River.

TVA has built, or acquired, 25 major dams, nine of them on the Tennessee River and the rest on tributary streams. Six other major dams, privately owned, are tied into TVA operations.

Supplementing the waterpower from the dams is steam-generated power from 10 major plants producing electricity from coal. TVA is the largest single coal buyer in the nation.

ACCORD MAY BE NEAR ON NEW STADIUM

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Democratic Commissioner John E. McGrady of Allegheny County has hinted he may supply the necessary vote for the approval of the proposed sports stadium for Pittsburgh.

"Point by point, they (the Pittsburgh Pirates) seem to accede to the requests I made," McGrady said Wednesday after the Pirates presented concessions covering leasing arrangements and the sharing of excess revenues and profits from the stadium.

McGrady and Democrat Dr. William McClelland, commission chairman, have opposed the financing plans for the stadium. Republican John M. Walker has favored it. If McGrady joins Walker at next Tuesday's commission meeting, McClelland's objections would be meaningless.

FIRST CONCESSION

McClelland said Wednesday the Pirates' proposal "doesn't meet with my approval," adding:

"For the first time, the Pirates have taken recognition of the merits of the county's objections to a lack of adequate security and to the lack of fair participation by the public in the revenues. Today's action is at least an indication of the willingness of the baseball club to move toward our position."

The Pirates' proposal, submitted by President John W. Gal-

Recreation Park Society Elects

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Warren Pfost of Monroeville is the new president of the Pennsylvania Recreation and Park Society.

Pfost was elected Wednesday at the close of the society's 16th annual conference. He succeeds John B. Zerbe of Hershey.

Other new officers are Earle D. Whitney of Butler, vice president; Douglas Niemond of Chambersburg, secretary, and Miss Patricia Farrell of Harrisburg, treasurer. The group elected to hold its convention next year at Easton.

breath, indicated the public would participate sooner in any excess revenues from the $45 million project.

Penna. Riflemen Challenge Ky. Sharpshooters To Match

HARRISBURG (AP) — A team of Pennsylvania horsemen plans to leave Capitol Hill May 17 bearing a formal challenge to a duel with the state of Kentucky.

Gov. Scranton put his signature and the Pennsylvania seal on the document here Wednesday. In the challenge, Pennsylvania raised doubts about Kentucky's claim to the famed "long rifle" and the reputation of the state's marksmen.

"Now, therefore, as governor of the great commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I challenge the honorable Bert Combs, governor of the commonwealth of Kentucky, to find Kentucky's finest marksmen to vie against the Pennsylvania riflemen at the Daniel Boone Homestead, near Reading, Pennsylvania," the governor said.

The long rifle, commonly called the "Kentucky rifle," will be the weapon. A joint committee from the two states will draw up the rules.

Pennsylvania's historical and Museum Commission worked out the idea for the challenge match, claiming Kentucky's association with the rifle had sullied the facts. The facts are, the commission said, that the rifle was developed and produced by Pennsylvania gunsmiths.

The match is scheduled tentatively for late September at Reading, where a group of long rifle buffs have been assembling annually for the past few years to test their skill with the rifle.

The two governors are expected to participate in the match.

The riders chosen for the trip to Frankfort, Ky., are Fred C. Gehm, 30, Mechanicsburg; Jimmy Diane Dubs, 18, Mechanicsburg; R. J. E. McCracken, 35, Bethlehem; Robert Wolford, 78, Mohnton; Mrs. Jan Witt, East Berlin R. 4; Mrs. Anne K. Wagner, 28, York R. D. 8, and Charles A. Zeliders, 40, Harrisburg.

McCracken once rode in a circus with Buffalo Bill.

FAT PATIENTS GIVE UP FOOD FOR RESEARCH

By ROBERT M. BURNETT
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Patients in an obesity research program at Wadsworth Veterans Hospital have found the one way to lose weight—quit eating.

They starve, they shed pounds by the hundreds—and they get well.

Dr. Ernst J. Drenick, section chief of internal medicine, started the program two years ago as a method of weight reduction for persons suffering from other ailments.

WAVE SETS RECORD

Of the 12 persons who have starved their way to better health at Wadsworth, Elaine Johnson holds the record for fasting time. The former WAVE, 39, has not eaten since she went on Dr. Drenick's nonfood diet 101 days ago. She tipped the scales then at a hefty 315 pounds and wore a size 50 dress.

Today she's down to a relatively trim 200, wears a 40 and hopes to lose another 50 pounds or so. She came to the hospital for treatment of high blood pressure.

"I'll starve as long as the doctor lets me," she said.

GETS VITAMINS

Patients taking the course are allowed all the water they want and get a twice-weekly ration of vitamins.

Record for weight loss is held by a man who dropped 200 of his 470 pounds, simply by not eating.

But Dr. Drenick's biggest challenge to date is Leland Poe, 38, who packed 500 pounds on his 6-7 frame when they carried him into the hospital about two weeks ago.

Poe now weighs 444 and has lost 10 pounds in the past two days. His goal is to get down to 230 within the next six months.

"I was like a bear going into hibernation," Poe recalled. I was sleepy and hungry for the first four days but now my body has changed and I'm living off the fat and food that I've stored up over the years.

"And there's still a lot here," he observed.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russian Soviet Republic sharply limited today the amount of livestock which private citizens may own.

Effective July 1, the decree said, "citizens who are not members of collective farms may have included in their personal property one cow and a calf not older than four months, one goat and kids not older than a year, and one pig or three sheep with offspring not older than a year."

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—Circulars claiming to reveal New Zealand's security plans in the event of nuclear war were a hoax perpetrated by 15 college students.

The students, from Victoria University, admitted distributing the circulars Monday in hundreds of Wellington mail boxes. Police said no action will be taken.

Leader Criticizes Church Education

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP)—Christian education, as it is presented now, is "irrelevant and uninteresting," a leader of the Wyoming Conference of the Methodist Church says.

The Rev. Franklin E. Kooker of Binghamton, executive secretary of the conference's board of education, made the comment Wednesday night on the first day of the conference's annual meeting.

The conference, comprising 147 churches in the southern tier of New York state and eastern Pennsylvania, ends Sunday.

The Rev. Francis Freeman, superintendent of the conference's Oneonta District, reported that churches in the conference had spent $475,367 in the last year for new buildings, building repairs and renovations and mortgage payments.

Today In Harrisburg

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's highway death toll for the first quarter of 1963 totaled 342, a decrease of 29 deaths from last year's figure according to Traffic Safety Commissioner Harry H. Brainerd, who pointed out that the number killed nationwide rose 4 per cent during the period.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Charles A. Baker has vacated the post of executive director of the Pennsylvania Federation of Fraternal and Social Organizations, it was announced here Wednesday.

Horace J. Culbertson, president, said Baker's contract had expired. The duties, but not the title were assigned temporarily to Mrs. Thomas Fogarty of Camp Hill.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Fish Commission says the season for muskellunge, northern pike, walleye and pickerel will open Saturday and continue through March 14.

The commission said Wednesday more than 13 million fry of the various species have been distributed in Pennsylvania waters.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Former House Speaker H. G. Andrews, who spent 30 minutes Wednesday with Gov. Scranton, described his visit as a courtesy call and declined to go beyond that.

"I had never met him, you know," the Johnstown Democrat said. "This was just a courtesy call."

Andrews served as speaker of the House in 1955 and from 1959 to the early part of this year. He was defeated for re-election last fall by Republican Rep. Cecil K. Leberknight.

WILL TIGHTEN PROCEDURE ON P.A. LICENSES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Highway Safety Bureau says it plans tighter procedures for lifting drivers' licenses in mandatory revocation cases.

The bureau Wednesday asked courts in all 67 counties to check their records to assure that all mandatory revocation convictions were being carried out.

In addition, said Traffic Safety Commissioner Harry Brainerd, one person in the bureau will be directly responsible for determining that the licenses of persons convicted in revocation cases are lifted immediately.

18 "MISFILED"

The changes are a result of the discovery of 18 cases from Lancaster County in which the licenses were never picked up. The bureau said the cases were "misfiled."

In one of the cases, a woman motorist convicted of drunken driving last fall never had her license lifted and she was involved in a fatal accident last month.

Dist. Atty. Alfred C. Alsop of Lancaster County proposed in a telephone conversation that judges lift the licenses immediately when motorists are convicted in cases that require mandatory revocation.

Alsop told a newsman that judges in his county considered the proposal a good one and would proceed on that basis. Brainerd said:

"There's no question it would help and I would be happy about it, but I'm going to look into it before deciding whether to ask all judges to do the same."

WYTHEVILLE, Va. (AP)—The collision of three vehicles 10 miles west of this southeastern Virginia community Wednesday killed Raymond Darr, 30, of Carlisle, Pa. Darr was driving a truck owned by Shaffer Trucking Inc., of Elizabeth, Pa.

Littlestown 'MAGIC OF MAY' TO BE MUSICAL THEME FRIDAY

"The Magic of May" will be the theme of the annual spring musical by the pupils of the Rolling Acres Elementary School, Grades One through Four, at 8 p.m. on Friday in the auditorium of the Maple Ave. School. The public is invited.

Mrs. Theresa C. Eshbach is vocal director; Paul A. Harner and Larry E. McGriff, instrumental directors, and Miss Charlotte L. Rogers, narrator.

The program will open with a song flute concert by the Fourth Grade students.

The vocal entertainment will be as follows: January, "Skater's Waltz," Reynolds and Waldeufel, and "The Snowman," Miller; February, "Valentine," Loomie, and "The Minuet," Mozart; March, "The Wind Blew East," folk song from Bahamas, and "Early Spring," Grant-Schaefer; April, "Easter Parade," Berlin; May, "May Day Song," Loomie, and "To Greet the May," June; "The Fisherman," Hunt, and "This Old Man," English folk song, First and Second Grade singers.

EMMITSBURG — Mrs. Alice Wood, Baltimore, visited on Sunday with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Topper.

Mr. and Mrs. William Garner and family, Kensington, visited with Mrs. Garner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald, on Saturday.

Anthony D. Topper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Topper, has enlisted in the U. S. Army for three years. He left Monday for Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Shorb visited in Hagerstown on Monday afternoon.

St. Joseph's High School Alumni Association will hold their annual banquet and dance on Saturday evening, May 25. The banquet will be served at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium by the ladies of the Sodality, followed by election of officers. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. in the VFW annex, Center Square.

President Mary Sherwin presided at the meeting of the Sodality of St. Joseph's Church Monday evening in St. Euphemia's hall. The meeting opened with a prayer by Father Stauble. The annual banquet was discussed and will be held May 21 at 6:30 p.m. at Royer's Restaurant, Thurmont. Tickets are $1.50 for members. Guest tickets are $2. A donation of $5 was voted for the spelling bee at Mother Seton School for graduation. Members will serve the Knights of Columbus breakfast on Sunday morning, June 2, in St. Joseph's High School. The door prize was won by Anne Gerken. A hat contest followed the meeting with winners as follows: Largest, Mrs. Paul Eckenrode; smallest, Blanche Kepner; prettiest, Mildred Dutrow; funniest, Loretta Adelsberger; most original, Helen Brown; most unusual, Frances Rosensteel; mystery, Blanche Bouey. The hats are on display in the window of Carter's Drug Store. Refreshments were served.

A surprise baby shower was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Curtis Topper in honor of Mrs. Thomas Bollinger and given by Miss Joan Topper. Those present were Mrs. Donald Rogers, Mrs. Charles B. Turner, Mrs. Curtis Topper, Mrs. Harry Fleming, Mrs. James L. Topper, Mrs. Arthur Starnes, Mrs. Richard Toppe, Miss Lois Hartdagan, Miss Nancy Starnes, Miss Susan Topper, Mrs. J. H. Elliott, Mrs. Robert Stafford, Mrs. Keigh Lemon, Miss Martha Jane Sherwin, Mrs. Daniel Boose, Mrs. John Holt, Mrs. Lawrence Topper, Mrs. Monroe Hewitt and Mrs. Henry Hilton. Those who were unable to attend were: Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Robert Henke, Mrs. Walter Opekum and Miss Viola Matthews.

On Thursday evening approximately 100 bicyclists received free reflector tape by members of the VFW, the state police and the Emmitsburg police force. Following the taping a movie on bicycle safety was shown by Troop-er Snyder of the Maryland State Police, followed by a question and answer period.

Slayer Convicted Of Manslaughter

YORK, Pa. (AP) — "I feel I have done nothing wrong," said Harvey Robinson, following his conviction in the slaying of a York woman.

The jury had brought in a verdict of guilty of voluntary manslaughter, and Robinson stood before county Judge Robert I. Shadle for sentencing.

"You can consider yourself fortunate," Judge Shadle told 32-year-old Pottstown drummer. "You could have been convicted of first degree murder."

Robinson, married and the father of four children, was sentenced to six to 12 years in prison for the fatal beating last Dec. 27 of Marlene Perez, 27. The incident occurred in her apartment.

The Los Angeles Dodgers stole 198 bases in 1962. Maury Wills hit 104. Willie Davis stole 32 times.

STATE TO BACK CULTURAL TV

HARRISBURG (AP)—The South Central Regional Broadcasting Council, which plans to operate a noncommercial, educational television station, was organized here Wednesday.

The council plans to telecast educational, cultural public affairs programs to some two million central Pennsylvanians in 13 counties.

If the state gets approval as a full power, 25-kilowatt station, its signal would be seen in Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Lebanon, Lancaster, Franklin, Juniata, Perry, York, Mifflin, Union, Snyder, Northumberland counties and portion of Berks.

Dr. Marcus Konick, director of the bureau of mass media for the state Department of Public Instruction, said the council is hopeful of receiving $100,000 appropriation from the state.

Remaining financial needs would be met by payments from school districts on a per pupil basis, from colleges and from industrial gifts and community fund drives, Konick said.

Dr. Ralph Bunche U.N. under-secretary for special political affairs, said in Hayward, Calif., that racial strife in Birmingham, Ala., is "the last stand of bitterness" in the South.

Bunche, speaking to Alameda County State College students, said, "The problem could be worked out quickly at the conference table, but not with high-pressure hoses and police dogs."

Igor Stravinsky, Russian-American composer, conducted his first postwar concert in Budapest and received a standing ovation. "I shall never forget this evening," the maestro said. He led the Hungarian State Symphony before an audience of 2,000.

Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, after a lecture at the National Science Fair-International in Albuquerque, N.M., was besieged by student scientists for his autograph. He obliged by making an "X," then drawing a circle around it.

Dr. Connie Guion, 80, the first woman doctor to become professor of clinical medicine in the United States, was on hand in New York at the dedication of the $5-million Doctor Connie Guion Building of The New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center.

Raids Icebox, Slices Finger

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has a wounded finger as evidence that, when it comes to slicing bread, he would make a good butcher.

The President showed up at his news conference Wednesday with a small bandage on the middle finger of his right hand.

Asked for an explanation, he said:

"I cut my finger when I was cutting bread, unbelievable as it may sound."

Presidential aides said Kennedy suffered the self-inflicted wound a week ago today when he raided the icebox for an early afternoon snack.

One White House staff member who sees the President almost daily said he was surprised to learn at the news conference about the cut.

Geometry Class Of Third Graders

BLOOMING, Va. (AP)—A third-grade geometry class in Bloomington School has been acclaimed a success.

The experiment has been carried on daily for 20 to 30 minutes, according to Principal S. Mason Sprague.

The pupils are required to read carefully, break down problems analytically and painstakingly follow instructions step by step. They learn to handle such technical terms as equilateral, triangle, precision and quadrilateral. They work with a straight edge and a drawing compass.

The faculty reports that the children have increased comprehension and vocabulary and that their muscular coordination has been improved. They also have increased comprehension of related subjects such as arithmetic and reading.

prizes and awards were announced by Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, dean of the college, and presented by John W. Shainline, dean of students.

In his address Dr. Heiges said in part:

"Men of faith recognize the danger to learning from another quarter, namely, the tyranny of usefulness. Time was when defenders of faith could see the justification of learning only in terms of its usefulness to faith. Calvin went on to insist that scholarship, in addition to serving faith and piety, must be 'sensitive to human need, relevant to social ills.' Since Calvin, the demands for usefulness have increased a thousand fold. Today the greatest threat to learning in our country is not ecclesiastical or political but rather the tyranny of immediate practicality: unless scholarship can demonstrably serve either the cause of national defense or the cause of industrial productivity it runs the risk of withering away from lack of support. It is of deep concern to faith that we preserve as the heart of the community of learning the pursuit of truth for its own sake because only thus, in the long run, can the common welfare be served."

"Men of faith do not expect learning per se either to provide all the data needed for decision or to furnish answers to ultimate questions. The potentialities and achievements of learning are enormous but they are not infinite. There is a dimension to life which learning itself cannot fathom, there are decisions to be made for which learning itself cannot provide every element. Scholars find in love as irrationally as stenographers. On a more serious level, when men of learning have resisted to the death the demands of popes and dictators a factor came into play which shattered the shell of intellectual detachment. In short, the necessity for commitment is as solidly built into the fabric of human existence as the dynamics of curiosity."

"Although the realms of faith and learning constantly impinge upon each other, they are and must remain separate realms. Faith is no substitute for learning, and learning is no substitute for faith. Tragic consequences follow whenever faith attempts to supplant learning, and whenever learning attempts to supplant faith. Separate realms they are indeed, and yet the record seems to show that faith divorced from learning tends to be blind, that learning divorced from faith tends to be sterile, and that each may easily become demonic in isolation from the other."

"Although it is impossible to trace the emergence of Christian faith on the plane of history and its role in western civilization apart from the annals of learning, the relationship between faith and learning has almost always been uneasy. I say 'almost' because it can be argued that there could not have been much uneasiness during the Middle Ages when whatever learning there was in the bosom of the Church! As every student of history knows, at times, the uneasiness between faith and learning flared into violence, usually to the great shame of the would-be defenders of faith. Now that the forces of learning have long since achieved their autonomy, the traditional uneasiness continues to exist only in the ranks of the scholarly faithful, and these ranks have been thinning steadily since the Enlightenment."

"Today a few men of faith are still to be found scattered among the intellectual elite, frequently without identification, and in the realm of higher education 'pockets' of them survive here and there. And one of these places ought to be a school such as Gettysburg College. Presumably, in such a place the relationship of faith and learning is of perennial, even daily, interest and concern—not to every member of the faculty and every member of the student body, certainly not, but of interest and concern to that substantial group of persons who take both faith and the intellectual enterprise seriously."

south side of the church. Two exits are available at the rear of the church also.

WALLS CRUMBLED

The reconstruction task included some necessary alterations of plans as originally designed, when it was found that the old structure, which was built in 1842, was in a serious state of deterioration. It was necessary to tear down substantially all of the old walls because of the crumbling of the brick in the interior layers. This entailed extra expense and brought congregational action empowering the building committee to make the necessary changes and expenditures.

The church school building adjoining the sanctuary required some extensive changes and repairs to insure safety of that structure.

The historic features of the church have been retained with new emphasis. The famous Lincoln pew, where the Civil War President sat when he attended services on his visit to the town for the dedication of the National Cemetery on November 19, 1863, at which time he delivered his immortal address, is back in its old position and, on the front wall of the steps leading from the church, the plaque noting the use of the church as a Cavalry Hospital during the battles here has been placed.

RAILING ON PORTICO

The steps descend north and south from the portico at the entrance, an iron railing extending along the Baltimore St. side.

The plaque commemorating Lincoln's visit is on the northwest corner of the church building. Another plaque has been placed in the narthex tracing briefly the history of the church.

One of the attractive designs in the church is a circular window high above the entrance porch, portraying in color the original log church built by the congregation in 1740 in the vicinity of the old Black's Graveyard along Upper Marsh Creek northwest of Gettysburg. The window has been lighted for several weeks each evening and has brought many favorable comments from passers-by.

FLEMISH WINDOWS

The main windows of the church are of Flemish glass in a light olive tint that breaks the glare of the sun but is an opaque that admits light. Back of the larger windows on the front of the church a unique plan has been devised to conceal stairways. Colonial wooden shutters in a walnut color of the Venetian blind type shut off the stairways from street view but still permit some light to enter the narthex. Soundproof double windows have been installed to exclude outside noises.

A specially designed green carpet covers the sanctuary floor, adding to the warmth of the decor of the interior. Under the pews the flooring is tile to improve the acoustics of the church. Church aisles have been widened from four feet to four and a half feet.

REBUILD ORGAN

The Moller pipe organ was completely rebuilt by the Hagerstown organ builders, the M. P. Moller Co., and was reinstalled in the choir area at the rear of the sanctuary a few weeks ago and given the needed tests. Some tonal changes were added to the instrument.

The removal of the choir loft to the balcony at the rear of the sanctuary will provide much needed space for the various choral groups. The area will accommodate three choirs when some special music service is held, at which time worshippers would have to be excluded from a portion of the balcony. Under ordinary conditions 50 or more worshippers can be accommodated, depending on the needs of the adult choir.

FELLOWSHIP HALL

The basement area of the story of Christian scholarship in the post-canonical period, but anyone with only a casual acquaintance with early church history knows full well that the triumph of the church within the context of Graeco-Roman culture could hardly have been achieved without men of learning. Precise definitions and nice distinctions were required, and piety alone could not have produced them. In time many of these men of learning were honored by the Church, but so far as I know not a single one of them was canonized because of his scholarship.

"Men of faith rejoice that the community of learning (at least in the West) finally achieved its autonomy. The community of learning must have freedom to pursue its inquiries subject only to its own rigorous disciplines and the canons of intellectual integrity. To the extent to which ecclesiastical or political or economic power tries to set limits to this freedom, to force the community of learning to support the clerical or political or economic party line, learning will not fulfill its unique role, will not realize its unique destiny. This is not to imply that the intellectual enterprise has the freedom to act irresponsibly with reference to the common welfare. Men in the academic arena can do more escape living within the polarity of freedom and responsibility than those whose lives are set in other church, accommodating Fellowship Hall, occupies an area that was augmented by excavation of the entire section under the sanctuary. This large room also contains accordion sliding partitions which divide the hall, when needed, into eight Sunday School rooms. New classroom areas have been added in the church school building and many other facilities provided for the growing congregation. Accordion sliding doors and movable cabinets and equipment have been installed throughout the building. A complete new kitchen has been installed.

The building committee which has had overall charge of the church renovation was composed of Atty. Franklin R. Bigham, Mrs. David G. Deitch, Dr. Roy W. Gifford, Paul W. Grove, Dr.

M. Scott Moorhead, Mrs. Ed. W. Thomas and Donald Z. Wagner, Rev. MacAskill, was ex-officio member of the committee. The finance committee included Atty. Richard A. Brown, James Scott Cairns, Dr. Seymour B. Dunn, William M. Lott and Daniel

A. Skelly Jr. The architects were J. Alfred Hamme & Associates of York and the general contractors A. B. Seifert & Son, Inc. of York. The historic log church window was designed and manufactured by the Rudy Glass Co., also of York.

2,000 ATTEND PARENTS' DAY AT THE MOUNT

More than 2,000 persons attended the tenth annual Parents' Day program at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, over the week. The program honored the memory of Blessed Elizabeth Ann Seton, foundress of St. Joseph College and recently beatified in Rome.

The program opened with the celebration of Mass at the college Grotto, the oldest replica of Lourdes in the United States and which has been designated as a national shrine by the Catholic Church.

Rt. Rev. George D. Mulcahy, rector of Mount Saint Mary's Seminary, delivered the sermon on Mother Seton and her association with the Mount. He described the beatification ceremonies of Mother Seton held early this spring in Rome. He stated that in 1858 the preacher at a similar Grotto Mass had prophesied the events that are now taking place. He said that at that time it was stated that pilgrimages would come from all points of the world to pray at the Grotto shrine.

"HOLY SPOT" "Early apostles of the American Church" had referred to this shrine as a holy spot, he said. He referred to such names as Bishop Dubois, Brute, Hughes and the first American Cardinal John McCloskey, as well as Bishop James Walsh, who is currently a prisoner in a Chinese Communist cell.

A wreath was laid on the site of Mother Seton's first house in Emmitsburg by Sister Rosemary Pfaff, president of St. Joseph College.

Following the services a brunch was served in the Cogan Union to the students, parents and guests. The menu featured a "typical Mountain" meal.

Departmental and student exhibits were on display in the meeting rooms of the Union. The day concluded with an informal reception given by the college president, Rt. Rev. Robert R. Kline, and other members of the faculty.

RR OFFER TO CLOSE COAL PIPELINE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Shutdown of the only major coal pipeline in existence does not sound the death knell for competition between railroads and pipelines in transporting coal, a coal company official says.

John Corcoran, a Consolidation Coal Co. vice president, made the observation Wednesday at a news conference in answer to an assertion made by Alfred E. Perlman, president of the New York Central Railroad.

Starting this summer, Consolidation is closing its 108-mile pipeline which transports coal from Cadiz, Ohio, to the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. The action is made necessary by the offer of several railroads to transport the coal at cheaper rates.

FORCED TO CUT Corcoran said the efficiency of pipeline transportation forced railroads to reduce their rates.

As a result of the rate reduction, New York Central, Pennsylvania and Nickel Plate railroads received a 10-year contract to haul the coal. Perlman said the contract "killed" competition from the pipelines.

Corcoran said the railroads' move was what Consolidation has wanted for many years. The company is in the coal mining business, not coal transportation, he said.

A Consolidation spokesman said it is premature to say pipelines are dead.

"If enough customers want coal at a price less than what the railroads are now transporting, we'll build the pipelines," he said.

Executive Board Of USW To Meet

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The International Executive Board of the United Steelworkers Union will meet in Pittsburgh next Tuesday and Wednesday.

At the same time he announced the meeting, President David J. McDonald said the union's 170-member Wage Policy Committee has not been summoned. It is this committee that can call for a reopening of the union's contract with the basic steel industry.

McDonald said Wednesday the executive board will be briefed on discussions currently going on in the Human Relations Committee.

The Human Relations Committee, a product of the last contract talks, meets frequently to study union-management problems.

67 SENIORS ON TRIP TO D.C. FOR TWO DAYS

Sixty-seven Seniors of the Littlestown High School, accompanied by four members of the faculty, enjoyed the annual two-day class trip to Washington, D.C., on Monday and Tuesday. The group made the trip in two buses and stayed overnight at Hotel Plaza.

They left town at 6 a.m. on Monday and stopped in Bethesda, Md., for breakfast. The itinerary that day included visits to the Washington Cathedral, which when completed will be the second largest in the United States; Capitol, where they saw the House of Representatives and the Senate in session; Washington Monument, where they had lunch in the mall; Bureau of Printing and Engraving; Smithsonian, Medical Arts and Air Science Museums; Washington National Airport; dinner at the hotel; Library of Congress; evening at the theater where they saw "How the West Was Won" in cinerama; visit to Union Station.

The Tuesday schedule consisted of visits to the Botanical Gardens; Federal Bureau of Investigation; Supreme Court, Mellon Art Gallery; boat trip from Washington to Mt. Vernon, which was toured; return to Washington by bus via Arlington, Va., National Cemetery, where they witnessed changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers; visits to the Iwo Jima, Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials.

SENIORS ON TRIP

The Seniors who went to the nation's capital were: Judith Apple, Thomas Apple, Dale Bair, Joan Barton, Frank Basehoar Jr., Ellen Baumgardner, Joann Beam, Barbara Bittle, Fred Blocher, Lloyd Bortner Jr., Sigurn Bohm, James Bowman, Gloria Bowers, Joe Boyd, Jeffrey Breighner, Frances Bridinger, Philip Close, Terry Crabbs, Diane Crouse, Kenneth Conover, Mike Cutsail, Sally Durbin, Melvin Ecker, Janice Evans, Alice Flynn, Alice Gladfelter, Wayne Good, Patricia Goodwin, Charles Hahn, Wesley Haines, Robert Hershey, Burnell Hiker, Carol Hollinger, Arvilla Ketterman, Jack Kraft, Betty Leister, Grace Lunsford, Patsy McGlaughlin, Nancy Moomaw, Kay Morehead, Richard Motter, Larry Myers, Patricia Myers, Jean Nichols, Hisako Ogasa, Linda Phunkert, Laraine Reinaman, Judy Rimel, Carl Ritter, William Ritter, Linda Sentz, Thomas Shildt, Ronald Smith, Fred Snyder, Thomas Stavelly, Dwight Strevig, Mary Study, Robin Thomas, Patsy Toner, Daryl Walters, Ned Wantz, Jill Weikert, Nancy Whitaker, Dwight Vintrose, William Woodward, Judith Wolfe and Nancy Yingling.

Faculty members accompanying as chaperones were Mrs. Ralph Barley and Richard D. Thomas, class advisors; Miss Beverly Ritter and Clayton L. Evans.

ELECTIONS TODAY

The annual Senior Class Day assembly will be held next Thursday afternoon, May 16. The Seniors and their advisors, Mrs. Barley and Mr. Thomas, will be in charge.

Class and student body elections for the junior-senior high school, grades 7-12, are taking place today. The annual honor roll party, for students of the junior-senior high who attained the scholastic standing required to be on the honor roll two out of three times during the term, will be held at 6 p.m. on Monday at the high school.

How To Use Water To END YOUR CONSTIPATION WORRIES

Here's how to get to the root of your constipation problem. Bring enough moisture to your lower colon every day. When food wastes are normally moistened, they will "move" as they should.

So do this. Take SERUTAN every day with plenty of water. SERUTAN is a gentle laxative aid that carries and holds water in your lower digestive tract to promote more normal regularity.

SERUTAN provides the proper moisture, bulk and peristaltic action to help keep you regular. This is utterly different from harsh chemical laxatives which may dry you out.

Get SERUTAN. Take as directed and enjoy daily regularity or money back from the maker.

CITY AWAITING END OF TRUCE IN RACE FIGHT

By STAN ATKINS
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—This southern industrial city may know today whether month-long desegregation demonstrations finally have come to an end.

A 24-hour moratorium on the protest marches by many hundreds of Negroes during the past few days ended at noon Eastern Standard Time.

Negro leaders voiced hopes that a settlement of racial differences might be reached soon.

The truce almost collapsed a few hours after it started when two of the integrationist leaders were jailed briefly, but it weathered that crisis.

24-HOUR TRUCE

Negro leaders announced the 24-hour truce Wednesday as heavily reinforced police patrolled the streets, quiet in sharp contrast to the crowd scenes of recent days.

The word came shortly before President Kennedy's news conference in Washington. The President said he was gratified by progress in what he described as "an ugly situation."

Alabama Gov. George Wallace called the President's remarks "unjust and unfair" and said the demonstrations had been carried on by "lawless mobs in conflict with lawfully constituted authority." Wallace said he would have no part in conferences "to compromise on the issues of segregation."

Along with a biracial committee, two aides of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy have been working behind the scenes to bring both sides together. The No. 1 negotiator is Asst. Atty. Gen. Burke Marshall.

There was no indication of what actually brought the truce.

QUIET LULL

It was a quiet lull in an explosive situation in which more than 2,400 Negroes have been arrested since the protest demonstrations began April 3. More than 2,000—most of them teen-agers—were arrested in the past week after the demonstrations expanded.

Goals of the Negro movement are desegregation of downtown lunch counters, restaurants and other public facilities; better job opportunities for Negroes; formation of a biracial committee with authority to solve racial problems; and dismissal of charges against all demonstrators who were jailed.

The truce in Birmingham faltered when Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, two Negro leaders, were convicted and jailed for parading without a permit.

The two had been arrested on Good Friday while leading a protest march.

LEADERS SENTENCED

They and 34 other demonstrators were given maximum sentences of 180 days and $100 fines.

Before the conviction, King told a news conference:

"We are hopeful that the possibility looms that we may be able to make some sort of settlement within the next 24 hours. We are very near a settlement."

As news of the convictions spread, some Negro leaders said they felt the city had broken faith. They said the truce would be called off.

But other leaders said it would stand. King himself stepped out of jail three hours later on $2,500 bond and said he hoped the truce would not be broken. Abernathy also was freed on bond.

But there were murmurings. "There will be demonstrations until our demands are met," the Rev. James Bevel of Cleveland, Miss., told one of the regular mass meetings at a Negro church. He called on parents to hold their children available for possible further demonstrations.

In recent days, demonstrations have meant seething crowds, harried police and firemen, high-velocity fire hoses, police dogs and wholesale arrests—but no conflict between white spectators and Negroes.

Byrd Talk Cost Tollen New Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Because of his public statements criticizing the welfare concepts of Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W. Va., William B. Tollen, chief of Pennsylvania's welfare relief program, apparently is out of the running for the job of District of Columbia welfare director.

Byrd, as chairman of the Senate District Appropriations subcommittee, has a dominant voice in the operation of Washington's

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

COVERED: America's seven original astronauts have been issued $100,000 life insurance policies that cover them "anywhere in space or on the earth."

The space flight coverage cost them something extra, it was announced Wednesday.

The policies were issued by the Aetna Life Insurance Co. and are the first individual policies issued to anyone in space travel.

Cost of the policies was not revealed.

WINDING MEMORIAL: Indiana's two senators have proposed an unusual memorial to Abraham Lincoln—a parkway that would begin at his birthplace, wind through areas where he lived and end at his final resting place, Springfield, Ill.

As introduced in a bill Wednesday by Democrats Vance Hartke and Birch Bayh, the proposed Lincoln Trail Memorial Parkway would begin at Hodgenville, Ky., pass through Spencer County, Ind., where he spent several years of his boyhood, extend into southern Illinois, the state he represented as a senator, and end at Springfield.

STEEL MILL: President Kennedy has endorsed construction of a $512-million steel plant for the Indian government at Bokaro.

The project assumed controversial proportions when the presidential committee on foreign aid headed by Gen. Lucius Clay criticized construction of the plant under government rather than private auspices through the use of U.S. aid funds.

The project apparently had been temporarily shelved, but at Wednesday's news conference Kennedy said, "I think it would be a great mistake not to build" the Bokaro plant, "India needs that steel," he added.

SURGERY FOR CANCER HELPS COLTS' HURLER

CINCINNATI (AP)—The long wait ends tonight for big Jim Umbricht whose pitching career was in jeopardy because of cancer. He will be in the bullpen for the Houston Colts against the Cincinnati Reds.

This will mark the latest milestone in the comeback story of the tall, crewcut right-hander from the University of Georgia who underwent a 7-hour cancer operation two months ago.

The days of doubt ended at midnight when Umbricht was restored to the active list. Manager Harry Craft promised that Big Jim would be in the bullpen for tonight's game.

FEELS FINE

Umbricht underwent surgery March 7 to remove a malignant growth from his right leg. Doctors said that under similar circumstances five years ago Umbricht's athletic career would have been halted and his leg probably amputated.

Umbricht, 32, says he feels fine, anxious to get back to pitching. How will opposing players treat him? Can he charge off the mound and field a bunt? How will he react the first time he had to slide?

"I'm not too worried," he grinned. "I might not get on base, the way I hit."

"As for the guys in the other teams, I sure don't expect to get any breaks from them. It's dog eat dog. I don't expect things to be any different than they were, but if anything, they may try to take advantage of me."

"Maybe they'll figure I can't run or move too well, and they'll try to bunt on me. I hope they try it, because I think I can handle it."

GRAHAM GOES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies trimmed their roster to the required 25 limit last night when they assigned outfielder Wayne Graham to their Little Rock farm club. Graham was batting .186 in 22 appearances this season. He played with Fort Worth-Dallas last season and joined the Phillies in spring training.

In eight seasons as coach at Dartmouth, Bob Blackman's teams have compiled a 47-22 record with 3 ties. His team won the Ivy League crown last fall.

welfare programs.

Tollen had said that no "decent, humane welfare administrator" would work under the rules laid down by Byrd.

JFK FEARS NEW BOMB TESTS IF BAN TALKS FAIL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy predicts a new round of nuclear testing by the United States and the Soviet Union unless a test ban treaty is negotiated this year—which he doubts.

If the prediction comes true, Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday, it "would be a great disaster for the interests of all concerned."

Recalling that he saw brightening prospects for a ban last December, Kennedy said there has been no sense of movement since then.

"I am not hopeful at all," he said, and expressed fear that progress must come soon or "perhaps the genie is out of the bottle and we will not ever get him back in."

"UGLY SITUATION"

Kennedy's pessimism on this subject was matched by an equal measure of optimism about efforts to end what he termed "an ugly situation in Birmingham, Ala."

Declaring that racial strife in Birmingham damaged the city and the nation, Kennedy said in an opening statement that responsible efforts by white and Negro leaders had prompted Birmingham businessmen to pledge "substantial steps" to meet the "justifiable needs of the Negro community."

But he said "much remains to be settled before the situation can be termed satisfactory."

Kennedy said that, in the absence of violations of federal law, the federal government had limited its role in Birmingham to that of mediator. But he said the situation could be quite different if two Negro graduate students win entry this summer to the Huntsville branch of the University of Alabama.

"This, of course, does involve the federal government," he said. And, reminded that Gov. George Wallace has threatened to physically and personally bar integration at the university, Kennedy said he hoped everyone would obey court orders "whether they agree with them or not."

In a 30-minute session that touched often on racial matters, Kennedy said the bettering of race relations is not a problem for the South alone.

Asked if he would endorse the move by white and Negro families in Knoxville, Tenn., to visit each other in their homes, Kennedy said:

"I think it would be very helpful, and you can start right here in Washington, D.C., where this is greatly needed."

Two overseas crises also were discussed:

Kennedy said that while Soviet Premier Khrushchev has reaffirmed a pledge to support a neutral and independent Laos, a recent attack on International Control Commission helicopters by the Pathet Lao "indicates that they are not at the present time living up to this commitment." He said he hopes Khrushchev can do better than that.

NIXON IS OUT, MILLER SAYS

HARRISBURG (AP)—When Richard M. Nixon moved from California to New York, he virtually eliminated himself as a contender in the 1964 presidential race, says the Republican national chairman.

Rep. William E. Miller, 4-N.Y., told newsmen at a Capitol Press Club dinner Wednesday night Nixon "left all of his base of political support."

Nixon's narrow defeat by John F. Kennedy in the 1960 presidential election has caused speculation that the former vice president might run again despite his setback in California's gubernatorial race last year.

Miller listed as the front running contenders New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, Michigan Gov. George Romney and Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

He declined to indicate what his personal preferences were. He had nine words for all of the four prospects he mentioned.

Asked if Gov. Rockefeller's divorce and subsequent remarriage last weekend would hurt his chances, Miller said he would expect voters to make their choice on capability of the candidates, rather than on personal sentiments.

"At least I hope this would be so," he added.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A preliminary hearing is set May 15 for Edward Fitzgerald, 31, who was turned over to federal authorities here Wednesday on a charge of robbing a bank.

Fitzgerald, whose home is in Newark, N.J., is accused of the May 2 holdup at the Citizens Trust Bank in which $1,435 was taken by a lone gunman.

The Los Angeles Classic, a basketball tournament set for December 26-28, includes Illinois, Michigan, NYU, Pitt, West Virginia, Yale, Southern California and UCLA.

State Dismisses Move To Stop Track

HARRISBURG (AP)—Commonwealth Court dismissed a petition Wednesday which sought to restrain Anthracite Raceway, Inc., from building and operating a harness race track in Luzerne County.

The appeal had been brought last Sept. 22 by Patrick A. Duffy, past president of Pocono Raceway, Inc., and W. Ken Duffy, a Pocono stockholder.

The defendants in the action were Anthracite and the state Harness Racing Commission.

The Duffys asked the court to set aside the license that the commission issued to Anthracite on Aug. 24, alleging that the state had failed to notify interested parties of the time of the license hearings.

Anthracite's track is to be built near Wilkes-Barre and offer 50 days of harness racing each year.

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Construction was under way today on 10 residence halls on the Dickinson College campus by the Orndorff Construction Co., Inc., of Camp Hill which has been awarded a $1,889,000 contract for the work.

Liverwurst takes to catchup, horseradish and Worcestershire sauce—just like cocktail sauce! Serve the seasoned liverwurst with crackers or small slices of rye bread for an appetizer.

Cooper To Rocket Into Space Next Tuesday For 22-Orbit, 34-Hour Trip

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Astronaut Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. has his "ditty bag" packed and the Mercury travel agency has ticketed him for the most extensive round-the-world tour ever planned for an American.

Next Tuesday, if the present schedule holds, Cooper will rocket into space on an intended 22-orbit mission lasting 34 hours 19 minutes. His only luggage will be a lunch box of bite-size tidbits and dehydrated food and the ditty bag—a packet for storing cameras and miscellaneous items.

A glance at the flight plan reveals these highlights:

600,000 MILES

Cooper's "Faith 7" spacecraft will travel nearly 600,000 miles and cover more than one million square miles of the earth's surface—at altitudes ranging from 100 to 170 miles.

As Cooper circles the globe, he will traverse all areas between 32.5 degrees north and 32.5 degrees south latitudes, which in the Western Hemisphere extends roughly from Charleston, S.C., to Santiago, Chile, and in the Eastern Hemisphere from Shanghai, China, to Sydney, Australia.

He will pass over parts of five continents, North and South America, Asia, Africa and Australia. Africa and South America will be crossed frequently.

OVER RED CHINA

Cooper will be the first U.S. astronaut to fly over Red China, spending a total of about 45 minutes over the Communist nation on passes lasting from four to eight minutes during orbits No. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 22. Should an emergency force a landing in China, America could be faced with a diplomatic headache.

If it's a clear day, Cooper will be the first American space pilot to peek behind the Iron Curtain. As he crosses above Afghanistan on the 10th and 11th orbits he briefly will be within a couple hundred miles of the southern Soviet border—within easy viewing distance from his sky-high vantage point.

Cooper's crossings of the United States will be confined to the extreme southern area on orbits No. 1, 2, 3, 15, 16, 17 and 18. Near the end of 1, 3, 16, and 18 he will be practically over his present home in Houston, Tex. If it were possible, he probably would wave to his wife Trudy and two teen-age daughters, waiting anxiously below.

OUT OF TOUCH

Faith 7 will be out of communications range of the Mercury tracking network for periods up to an hour during orbits 4, 5, 6, 19, 20 and 21.

Cooper's Atlas booster is scheduled to blast off between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Eastern Standard Time. If the flight goes the full distance he will land in the Pacific Ocean southeast of Midway Island between 6:19 p.m. and 8:49 p.m. Eastern Standard Time the next day.

DEMOCRATIC MARGIN IN PA. CUT IN HALF

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Democrats' margin in Pennsylvania voter registration has been cut in half, since last November, according to statistics released by the state Election Bureau.

Official figures from all 67 counties showed Wednesday that total Democratic registration for the May 21 primary is 2,709,595. Republican registration is 2,624,370.

The Democrats' edge is 85,225, compared with a margin of 195,935 for the gubernatorial election last Nov. 6. The Republican gain marks the reversal of a trend since 1960.

BIG DEMOCRATIC DAY

Republicans held the state voter registration lead through the 1960 presidential primary. However, Democrats moved to a lead of nearly 3,000 voters for the presidential election that year.

The Democrats increased that margin every election through last November when Republican William W. Scranton was elected by a landslide margin of more than 470,000 votes.

Total registration for the primary is 5,402,739, compared to 5,673,497 last fall. Traditionally spring registration is below fall registration.

Democratic registration declined 180,898 since last fall; GOP registration dropped 75,794.

SPIRIT OF INVESTIGATION

PERRYVILLE, Ohio (AP)—When science teacher Edward Everstine began studying the balances that control gliders, and the principles of flight, he did it on a grand scale.

Using a plan from a book published in 1918, Everstine spent nine months building a 110-pound glider to pursue his studies.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

It was the faith of a poor journeyman shoemaker which led him to become the father of the modern foreign missions movement. Born in Northamptonshire in 1761, William Carey's early Christian training was in the established Church of England. While a cobbler's apprentice he was converted by fellow apprentices to become a Baptist.

William earned a meager living, but he was rich in having a mind that reached out for knowledge. There was always an open book on his cobbler's bench and he taught himself Hebrew, Latin and Greek. Commissioned a Baptist minister, he preached in his village church, and developed a deep concern for the non-Christians of the world. Had not Jesus told the apostles to teach all nations? He began to preach that it was the duty of the church to send the gospel to all the world.

He proclaimed, "Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God." He was the first to go to India for the missionary society he helped found. At Serampore he built a church, school and printing plant. Before he died, his presses had printed over 200,000 Bibles in nearly 40 different languages and dialects.

TAX EVASION CASE MAY GO TO JURY FRIDAY

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—The six-and-a-half-week-old tax evasion trial of two Luzerne County mining companies and four individuals drew near a close today with summations by opposing attorneys.

There were also indications that Judge William J. Nealon would turn over the lengthy case to the jury sometime Friday.

Both sides rested officially Wednesday after the U.S. government presented two rebuttal witnesses to wind up all testimony.

MOTIONS DENIED

Defense attorneys also renewed their motions for acquittal but they were denied by Judge Nealon.

A total of 98 witnesses were called to testify—90 for the government and eight for the defense. Court reporter Emily Cadden estimated that some 4,000 pages of type-written testimony and arguments have been introduced into the record.

On trial are the Avon and Peeley mining companies of Wyoming, Pa.; August J. Lippi, president of United Mine Workers Union District One; Robert L. Dougherty Sr., former president of the two firms; and Frank Cardoni and Leonard Statkewicz, former Lippi aides.

LEGAL WRANGLE

The government contends Avon and Peeley evaded $106,189 in corporate income taxes for the fiscal years ending in 1957 and 1958. Lippi, Dougherty, Cardoni and Statkewicz are accused of conspiracy. None of the defendants took the stand. Opposing attorneys spent most

Skunk Breaks Up School Concert

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—No encores were called for at the end of the annual spring concert at Catholic Central High School Wednesday night. A skunk broke up the finale by walking across the stage, and the audience fled.

The last number on the program was the school's alma mater, presented by the band and chorus.

The audience of about 1,500 parents and pupils stood. The music began, and out walked the skunk. No one has discovered how the skunk entered the building and how—or if—he left.

wore white satin shoes. She carried two pink tinted orchids on a prayer book.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Barry Harbaugh, Orrtanna, wore blue chiffon over taffeta and blue satin shoes. Her blue eye-length veil fell from a beaded crown and she carried white carnations. Barry Harbaugh served as best man and Terry Shuyler, Gettysburg, as the usher.

RECEPTION IS HELD

The bride's mother wore yellow with white accessories and a white rosebud corsage. The groom's mother wore a black and white dress with matching accessories and a similar corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall after which the couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. For traveling the bride chose a three-piece pink and white linen suit with white accessories. Upon their return the bride will reside at her home while the groom will return to Otis Air Force Base, Mass.

The bride is a graduate of Fairfield high school in the class of 1962 and is employed in the office of the Gettysburg Shoe Company. The groom graduated from the same school in the class of 1959 and is now serving in the Air Force, studying reciprocating aircraft mechanics at the Otis Base.

Anxiety Mounts In OAS Over Duvalier Reprisals As Threat Of War Cools

By LAURANCE F. STUNTZ

NEW YORK (AP)—The special peace committee of the Organization of American States delayed its return to Haiti and the Dominican Republic today, apparently convinced that the threat of war between the two Caribbean neighbors is no longer serious.

The main concern appeared to be whether the threat of revolt in Haiti would prompt Dictator-President Francois Duvalier to launch sweeping, bloody reprisals against foreigners, particularly Americans, and suspected opponents.

UPRISING PLANNED

The anti-Duvalier underground has threatened an uprising by May 15. Meanwhile the OAS is without authority to intervene in what is essentially a domestic Haitian affair.

Gonzalo Facio of Costa Rica, head of the OAS council, told newsmen in New York Wednesday night that it may be 10 days before the committee goes back to the troubled island of Hispaniola.

"The committee almost certainly will return," Facio said. "But just when and what their agenda will be hasn't been decided yet."

The special committee was set up last week after Duvalier's police invaded the Dominican Embassy in Port au Prince in search of Duvalier opponents who had taken refuge there.

EASE CRISIS

Dominican resident Juan Bosch moved troops to the border and threatened military action, but a visit by the OAS committee calmed the situation.

Facio said the OAS will study a report from Alberto Zuleta of Colombia, a committee member who stayed behind and was expected back from Santo Domingo today.

"We're also evaluating other information before deciding when the committee will return," Facio said. "We're getting reports on the situation of those in asylum in Port au Prince and on the Haitian internal situation."

Haitian Foreign Minister Rene Chalmers conferred with Facio and members of the OAS committee Wednesday night in New York and told them he will try to end his government's hostile acts against 22 political refugees still in the Dominican Embassy. He also promised the committee to press Duvalier to give safe conduct out of the country to the refugees, who were put under protection of the Colombian Embassy after Haiti broke relations with the Dominican Republic last week.

At the height of the crisis, Duvalier pledged to let 15 of the 22 refugees go and to allow the other seven to transfer to the Colombian Embassy. Instead he ringed the Dominican Embassy with troops, and Bosch has demanded that all 22 be allowed to leave the country.

About 60 Duvalier opponents are in other Latin-American embassies in Port au Prince. No open move has been made against them.

Chalmers told newsmen Monday night in Port au Prince that little by little all the refugees in all the embassies would be allowed to leave Haiti. None has been given safe conduct, however.

SPECIAL POWER

The OAS council gave its special committee new powers Wednesday to perform "whatever service is necessary" to help solve the dispute between Haiti and the Dominican Republic.

There had been complaints that the mission was handicapped because it was empowered only to investigate the situation.

Chalmers told the U.N. Security Council Wednesday that Haiti had been subjected to repeated threats of aggression from the Dominican Republic.

Guarua Velazquez, the Dominican delegate to the U.N., denied the charge and proposed that the dispute be left in the hands of the OAS.

More Security Council debate was scheduled today. The council was expected to leave the dispute with the OAS.

AP Correspondent Robert Berrellez reported from Port au Prince that underground conspirators are striking nightly against Duvalier's militia in a bid to topple the dictator before the month is out.

STAGE AIRLIFT

Two Pan American planes airlifted 178 wives and children of American servicemen and diplomats from Haiti Wednesday while the converted aircraft carrier Boxer and a squadron of U.S. warships lay offshore with 2,000 Marines aboard.

The State Department estimated

COUPLE WEDS IN ARIZONA

Miss Gloria Aguilar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Aguilar, Chandler, Ariz., and Garry D. Neary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Neary, W. Middle St., were married Saturday in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Chandler, Ariz. The Rev. Fr. John McMahon, pastor of the church, performed the nuptial ceremony.

MRS. NEARY

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mori, of Chandler. Mrs. Mori is a cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a knee-length white chiffon gown, with short white veil and carried white carnations. Mrs. Mori wore turquoise chiffon with a small turquoise veil and carried matching flowers.

Neary is an airman second class in the U. S. Air Force stationed at Williams Air Force Base, near Chandler, Ariz. He is a jet mechanic on the new T-33 trainer jet plane. He has served two years in the Air Force since attending Delone Catholic High School.

His bride is a graduate of Chandler High School.

Following a reception last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aguilar, the young couple left on a wedding trip, including a visit with the bridegroom's parents here. They will return to Chandler May 27 when Airman Neary will resume his duties at the Air Force Base there.

REV. SIMMONS

is president of the Gettysburg Ministerium and chairman of the division of life and work, Adams County Council of Churches. He serves his denomination as vice chairman of the Christian Education Commission and on the district board of administration. He was chairman of the building committee for Camp Eder, near Fairfield, a new church camp.

The Spray church that has called Pastor Simmons is a congregation of over 440 members and is less than a generation old. Within the last 15 years, the Spray congregation has built a new church plant costing in excess of $140,000. Less than seven years ago the church built a new eight-room parsonage at a cost of $25,000. Both the church plant and parsonage are paid for. The denominational church architect is making preliminary drawings to enlarge the educational wing of the church which already is too small.

Prior to coming to Adams County, Mr. Simmons served the Pipe Creek and Union Bridge Churches of the Brethren in Carroll County, Md., for five years. His first full time pastorate was in Floyd County, Va., where he served for almost six years. He is a graduate of Bridgewater College, Bridgewater, Va., and of Bethany Biblical Seminary, Chicago. He has also done graduate work in the Lutheran Seminary, Gettysburg.

Mrs. Simmons is the former Miss Mary Kathryn Gingrich of Lebanon County, a graduate of Hershey High School and the Lancaster Hospital School of Nursing, Lancaster. She is a registered nurse on the Warner Hospital staff. The Simmons have four children. A son 4 in senior high school, two daughters in the junior high school and a daughter in Kee-fauver Elementary School.

Family Food Facts

By HAROLD E. NEIGH

Consumer Economics Specialist

Beef and fryers head the list of meat values in area food stores this week, according to Harold Neigh, consumer marketing specialist at Penn State.

May brings chicken-eating back to the great outdoors. Although "cook-outs" don't really get started until Memorial Day fryers do give retailers a chance to promote a warm weather item. Supplies available during May are 4 per cent less than a year ago so you won't find much change in retail prices from the previous month. Peak supplies will come later in the summer.

Retrail beef prices will continue to decline in May. The longer cooking roasts will be wearing the more attractive price tags. Warm weather demand for quick cooking cuts such as steaks will keep retail prices from dropping too much on them. Standing rib roasts will be attractively priced at many area stores this week-end while other stores will run specials on steaks and chuck roasts.

BARGAIN PRICES

With all the competition from beef and poultry, you'll still find bargain prices on pork from time to time. Spring is a good time to put extra pork cuts in the freezer because prices will be higher during the summer months. Watch for feature prices on cuts the family enjoys. Then buy one to serve and two to save. That way the freezer will soon be stocked for future eating at economy prices. Recommended freezer storage time for fresh pork roasts is 6 to 8 months at zero degrees or lower. Chops and steaks may be kept frozen up to 6 months. Cured pork may be kept frozen up to 2 months.

Harvard football teams have a 30-23 record in six seasons under Coach John Yovicsin.

water, Va., and of Bethany Biblical Seminary, Chicago. He has also done graduate work in the Lutheran Seminary, Gettysburg.

Mrs. Simmons is the former Miss Mary Kathryn Gingrich of Lebanon County, a graduate of Hershey High School and the Lancaster Hospital School of Nursing, Lancaster. She is a registered nurse on the Warner Hospital staff. The Simmons have four children. A son 4 in senior high school, two daughters in the junior high school and a daughter in Kee-fauver Elementary School.

MODERATE TRAINING

NEW YORK (AP)—A heavy wave of trading pushed the stock market toward a new 1963 high today, then gains were clipped as trading moderated early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon registered a substantial gain of 1.0 at 271.3 with industrials up 1.3, rails up .6, and utilities up .3.

First hour volume totaled 1.64 million shares, the largest in weeks.

Steels, motors, chemicals, oils, rails, utilities, electronics, and other groups posted gains. Airlines, tobaccos, and building materials were mixed.

WILL PROBATED

The will of Effie G. Noel, late of Gettysburg, has been entered for probate at the office of the county register and recorder. Executors of the $6,300 estate, which is bequeathed to brothers and sisters, are Minnie C. Florence, 150 W. Middle St.; John R. Noel, Hanover; Samuel L. Bishop, Hanover, and Blanche M. Bishop, Gettysburg R. 3.

TO POST PLANS ON CHANGES AT ENGINE HOUSE

Prices and plans for building or remodeling of the fire engine house will be posted in the engine house in six different phases until the June 4 meeting of the Littlestown Alpha Fire Company in order to give members an opportunity to arrive at a decision to vote on the proposed building plan.

Monroe Morelock of the building committee presented the plans at the May meeting of the Alpha firemen Tuesday evening at the hall.

17 FIRE CALLS

The following were appointed to serve as the parade committee: Monroe Morelock, Bernard Kobil, Howard Myers, Henry Waltman, Edward Loeffel, Bernell Keagy, Harry Badders and Dennis S. Wallick.

The assistant fire chief, James Hahn, reported the following calls during the last month: Six calls were answered to Carroll County; three in Union Township; four in Mout Joy Township; three in Germany Township, and one in Mt. Pleasant Township for a total of 17 calls. There was a total loss of $20,150.

Truck Foreman Joseph Redding reported that there have been a few minor repairs made to the trucks in the last month. All equipment is in satisfactory order now.

Walter Morelock and Gerald Daley were nominated for membership as social members and Robert Murren and John W. Spalding as active members. President Harner appointed James Hahn, Jay Basehor and Paul Altoff as an investigating committee. Bills amounting to $150.64 were ordered paid. Receipts for the month amounted to $1,465.04.

Assistant Fire Chief Hahn suggested that there is a need for addition Indian fighters and rakes, which are necessary to help battle the numerous grass fires that the company has currently been encountering. It was decided that the trustees would be in charge of purchasing additional fighters and rakes.

A shrimp feed will be held at the engine house on Friday evening, May 24. Reservations must be made before May 17 which are available for $3 from Clarence Krichen Sr. and Glenn Ohler.

Forty-seven members answered roll call after which refreshments were served by the refreshment committee comprised of Kenneth Lemmon, James Hahn and Fred Miller.

The next meeting of the company will be June 4 at 8 p.m. at the fire hall.

WILL PLAN FOR LITTLE LEAGUE

Littlestown Little League managers, representatives of the sponsoring organizations and all Little League fathers are urged to attend an important meeting at 8 o'clock this evening in the Jaycee office in the Community Center. Plans for the coming season will be made and the annual player auction will take place, when approximately 35 boys who reported for try-outs the last three evenings will be assigned to teams. The local sponsoring organizations are the Rotary Club, Lions Club, Jaycees, VFW, American Legion and the Eagles.

The Board of Directors of the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet at 7 p.m. on Monday in the Jaycee office of the Community Center.

The bicycle ride scheduled by the Junior High Luther League for this Sunday has been postponed due to Mother's Day. The ride will be held on May 19, leaving at 2 p.m. from the church.

TO SELL PLANTS

A public party will be held by the Eagles Auxiliary at 8 p.m. on Friday in the social room of the F.O.E. Home, W. King St.

FOR BROWNIES

Fly-up ceremonies for the Brownies of Troop 966 and Troop 976 were held on Tuesday evening in St. Aloysius Hall. Brownies, Girl Scouts, leaders, parents and friends were in attendance.

The program was arranged by Troop 966 with Kathy Breighner as mistress of ceremonies, and opened with a flag drill, for which each girl had a flag of a different nation; the pledge to the flag and the group singing of "America."

The Brownies of Troop 1043, Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, leader sang a couple of songs. The history of Girl Scouting was given by Debbie Bucher; the association between Girl Scouts and Girl Guides, given by Debbie Herring; in keeping with the Brownie requirements, "How to set a table," was given by Elizabeth Warner and Tersea Helm; "How to make a bed with four corners," Joyce Rexroth and Kathy Redding; "Proper way to display the flag," Michelle Harper and Peggy Fuhrman; "How to lay a trail," Vicki Miller and Darlene Barnhart.

The investiture ceremony then took place, with the Fly-up Brownies participating. The wings were pinned on each girl by her mother.

The Brownies of Troop 966 include: Debbie Barnhart, Kathy Breighner, Debbie Bucher, Kathy Collins, Peggy Fuhrman, Michelle Harner, Rebecca Harner, Debbie Herring, Teresa Helm, Elizabeth Maitland, Vicki Miller, Melanie Lippy, Kathy Redding, Joyce Rexroth, Audrey Rohrbach, Darlene Schuchart and Elizabeth Warner. Mrs. Marvin F. Breighner is the troop leader, assisted by Mrs. Denton Barnhart and Mrs. William Warner.

The Troop 976 Fly-ups include: Debra Adams, Carol Baumgardner, Margaret Breighner, Pamela Breighner, Loretta Crabbs, Cynthia Damm, Rebecca Feeser, Jennifer Frock, Bevely Harner, Jeannine Jago, Linda LeGore, Melissa Keagy, Kathy Kerns, Sandra King, Jane Koonz, Vicki Kuhns, Patricia Miller, Debbie Moose, Debbie Morehead, Sharon Mundorff, Kathy Sell, Martha Sentz, Sandra Snyder, Marguerite Walter, Debbie Yingling and Nancy Zepp. Mrs. Samuel J. Snyder is troop leader, and Mrs. Harry D. Feeser, assistant.

The program concluded with the group singing of "Girl Scouts Together." Refreshments were served in charge of Troop 976.

TO USE $2 BILLS

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP)—More than 2,000 strip mining employees will be paid some $360,000 in $2 bills this month.

The Central Pennsylvania Open Pit Mining Association said the seldom-seen bills will go to 2,342 workers from 64 companies in an effort to impress upon communities the economic advantages of strip mining.

WARM AIR FANS
EASTERN AREA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unseasonably warm weather covered broad areas of the eastern two-thirds of the nation today after Wednesday's midsummer temperatures in many cities.

The mercury stayed in the 60-70 degree range during the night in most areas. Readings in the 80s and 90s were reported Wednesday in many sections as a strong flow of warm air from the Southeast fanned across sections from the Atlantic to the Rockies.

Temperatures in the 50s and a few 40s were reported this morning along northern border areas from New England to the Plains. Similar marks prevailed in the northern and central Plateau region and the northern Rockies. Hottest spots were in the southwest desert region with readings in the 70s and 80s.

Record high temperatures for May 8 included 99 in Dodge City, Kan., 91 in Chicago and 90 in St. Louis and Burlington, Iowa. It was 101 in Phoenix, Ariz.

Major League Stars

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
BATTING—Willie Davis, Dodgers, hit two homers, and tripled in eighth inning, scoring the tie-breaking run as Los Angeles went on to wallop St. Louis 11-5.

PITCHING—Don Rudolph, Senators, allowed only one hit for 12 innings while retiring 25 batters in order, and wound up with a four-hitter in 6-3, 13-inning victory over Cleveland.

Johnny Rotz has led the New York jockeys the last two years. In 1962 he rode 198 winners. In 1961 he had 157 victories at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga.

BAKERS ADOPT 35-HOUR WEEK IN 4 WORK DAYS

By GENE HANDSAKER
ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—How'd you like to have this kind of working schedule—

Four days on the job, four off, four on, four off—and so on around the year?

And have, besides, a 35-hour week?

A frozen bake-goods plant in this Los Angeles suburb has just inaugurated the plan. Virtually everybody concerned is enthusiastic about it even though the working day is 10 hours instead of the normal 7.

The company says it saves 7 cents per man hour in wages. The plant now operates 147 hours a week instead of the former 80 hours.

The union is happy because the plant has hired 75 per cent more employees.

The employees? They voted 3½ to 1 for the plan.

"I like it," says Ralph Philistine, 19, who runs a machine that stamps out bread dough. "I can travel if I want to—or just rest for four days."

Paul Andersen, 19, who works in a zero-degree freezer: "I like it real well. In four days off you can get a lot done. I'm going to try to paint my house."

A number of employees use the free time to further their education. Tom Wyant, 20, who packs frozen bread dough into boxes, studies math in night school. He wants to be an electronics technician.

Random interviews turned up only one opponent of the plan. "It throws me off balance," said John Salgado, 26, a dough mixer. "I'm used to working five days a week."

The plant is the bakery division of the Bridgford Packing Co., founded in 1932 by hearty Hugh H. Bridgford, now 54. His husky son Hugh William, 31, known as Bill, runs the bakery division.

It produces frozen bread, rolls and pizza and formerly operated two 40-hour, five-day shifts.

Bill recalls: "One day my dad said to me: 'There are 168 hours in the week and we're using 80. How can we use some more, for maximum production? Think about it.'"

In the weeks that followed, Bill devised what the company now calls the four-by-four plan. It works like this:

There are four complete crews. Two work the day shift and two the night. A day crew and a night crew work four consecutive days while the other two have the same days off. Then the crews that have just been off go to work and the first two take four days off. Saturdays and Sundays are work days.

10-HOUR DAY
Each shift is 10 hours within a 10½-hour span. Eight hours are at regular pay and two hours at time and a half. Thus an employee draws 11 hours' pay for 10 hours' work.

Each shift takes an unpaid half hour for lunch. Half the employees continue to run the plant while the other half eats.

During a three-hour evening shutdown between shifts, other employees clean up the plant. The plant is in actual production 21 hours a day—147 hours a week. The plan required the hiring of 30 new employees, bringing the total to 70.

How does it figure out to a 35-hour week?

Consider an eight-week cycle—56 days. The employee has 28 days off. He works 10-hour shifts the other 28—a total of 280 hours. Divide 280 hours by eight weeks and you get 35 hours per week.

Harold Woodward, secretary of Butchers Union Local 551, which represents all Bridgford employees, stresses that the plan originated with the management. "It's nothing we forced down their throats."

At first, Woodward admits, he was skeptical. For one thing, at their former pay, employees would have grossed three per cent less under the four-by-four plan.

GAVE WAGE HIKE

But the company took care of this "right off the bat." Woodward says, with a three per cent wage hike. Average pay at the plant is $2.80 per hour.

Woodward says the union's international vice president, Max J. Osslo of San Diego, called the plan a good idea.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

WONDERS NEVER CEASE. In the field of cosmetics, new or improved products for skin problems are the target of unending research. And while the Fountain of Youth has yet to be discovered, wonders almost as miraculous have been found or are on the horizon.

Most significant at the moment is the development of medicated cosmetics, now often referred to as "medi-cosmetics." As they are fairly new on the scene, the nature of their use and effectiveness work for mass-production industries but probably not for supermarkets and other concerns whose staff requirements vary from day to day.

The plan hasn't been applied to Bridgford's packing division, which packages meats, because most employees in that department are women. They're limited by law to an eight-hour day.

Woodward, 56, summarized the plan's advantages from the union standpoint: "It gives our people that much more time off, puts nearly twice as many people to work, and adds that many more to our local."

The employees have a union shop.

In fact all serious disorders are in the doctor's province. Medicated cosmetics do not claim to cure, only to ameliorate. And having been conceived by medical scientists and chemists, they perform superbly.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP)—Friends and admirers of Monty Woolley paid final tribute Wednesday to the actor, known far and wide for his crotchety role in "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Woolley, 74, died Monday in an Albany hospital of kidney and heart ailments.

Sweden Answers Appeal For Military Power For U.N.

By BRACK CURRY
STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—If the United Nations is to have a future, Secretary-General U Thant told Swedes last year, it must have the military power to keep peace. Sweden is answering the call.

Premier Tage Erlander sees a new Swedish-Danish-Norwegian emergency force earmarked for U.N. operations as the forerunner of a permanent U.N. military arm empowered to maintain peace in world trouble spots.

The Swedish leader endorsed a permanent U.N. "fire brigade" in an interview with The Associated Press.

KEY FIRST STEP

Asked if the new Scandinavian emergency force might lead to a larger U.N. military arm of many nationalities, Erlander replied, "I would hope so."

The three Scandinavian countries agreed last month to equip a joint emergency force of 3,000 men for U.N. service. Erlander said the force would be maintained permanently for use as needed by the United Nations.

Separate Swedish, Danish and Norwegian forces serve with other nations under U.N. command in the Congo and the Middle East. Thant called these emergency forces a key first step toward a permanent U.N. police power in a speech at Uppsala last year.

IN GRAVE JEOPARDY

Political bickering and skyrocketing costs which threatened to bankrupt the United Nations have placed the future of these two peacekeeping missions in grave jeopardy.

The U.N. General Assembly will meet in special session May 14 to try to hammer out a workable plan for financing U.N. peace-keeping operations.

Leading the way to wider international cooperation is nothing new for the tall, unpretentious Erlander, Europe's senior chief of a freely elected government. The 61-year-old Socialist has held office continually since 1946.

Turning to affluent Sweden's foreign aid program he said: "It is true that Sweden presently devotes some 0.2 per cent of her gross national product to the developing countries. But I would like to stress that this aid has been increased from 50 million crowns—$10 million—to 175 million crowns—$35 million—in two years."

He said there is widespread support in Sweden for an increase in the country's foreign aid program to one per cent of the national income.

Erlander also called for wider economic cooperation within Europe.

"The process of widening economic integration between the European countries cannot be brought to a halt in the long run," he said, referring to the French veto of Britain's bid to join the European Common Market.

Sweden had applied for associate membership in the six-nation Common Market and had planned to join after Britain.

SHOW RESULT OF BIG BLAST

NEVADA TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—Ten months ago scientists fired a 100-kiloton thermonuclear device buried 625 feet in the earth. In three seconds 12 million tons of soil rose in a mighty upheaval.

The Atomic Energy Commission gave newsmen their first look at the results of the blast Tuesday. On the AEC's test area here they were shown a gigantic hole—1,200 feet across, deep enough to hide a 32-story building. The walls are so steep the only way to get down into it is in a four-wheeled buggy, attached to a cable, which is lowered down a runway of metal mats by a crane.

AEC spokesman said the blast was part of a test to develop peaceful uses for the powers of atomic explosion. The July 6 device had a power equivalent to 100,000 tons of TNT. Nuclear power, when safely harnessed, will be able to save up to 90 per cent of the cost of conventional excavations, a scientist told newsmen.

One big problem: radiation. Workers weren't able to get into the crater until February.

Nasser Supporters Riot In Damascus

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Pro-Nasser demonstrations erupted Wednesday in Damascus and the northern city of Aleppo on the sixth day of Syria's political crisis.

Gunfire broke out in Aleppo and the army imposed a curfew. Usually reliable sources said several persons were killed.

There was no shooting in Damascus. Truckloads of riot police with steel helmets and whip-like canes broke up the crowds near Port Said Square.

Witnesses said many of the demonstrators were refugees from

MOTHER OF 7 WINS COVETED 1963 AWARD

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Olga Pearson Engdahl of Omaha, Neb., outpointed aspirants from the 50 states Wednesday for the coveted Mother of the Year award.

The handsome 67-year-old mother of seven, blue-eyed and gray-haired, was selected by the American Mothers Committee, Inc.

Mrs. Engdahl and her husband, John S. Engdahl, both natives of Nebraska, were present when the announcement was made. They have six sons, one daughter and 14 grandchildren.

Engdahl is founder and president of the Engdahl Top and Body Co., which he said is the oldest automobile body firm in Nebraska.

LUTHERAN ORGANIST

Three of her sons are officers in the company. Another is a doctor, one is a trust officer at the Omaha National Bank, and the sixth is associated with the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co.

The daughter is married to a Scottsbluff, Neb., lumberman.

Mrs. Engdahl is a charter member of Trinity Lutheran Church where she has served as organist, Sunday School teacher and president of the Women's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Engdahl, who was presented a large bouquet of American beauty roses, said "I have been blessed by God with seven wonderful children and a loving husband. I will try to live up to the title of Mother of the Year."

"I think she always was wonderful and she is worth it," Engdahl said. "She was the nicest girl in town and still is."

The couple has been married 47 years.

RAINS HELPED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rains and some snow last week helped to alleviate dry field conditions, the Federal-State Crop Survey said today.

Soil moisture still is below normal in most areas, however, the survey said in its weekly report.

Palestine, probably the most rabid supporters of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

The trouble broke out shortly after a delegation from the National Revolutionary Council flew to Cairo for talks on the crisis revolving around Syria's role in the projected new Arab federation.

Only gray horses to win the Preakness Stakes were Balmat in 1895 and Native Dancer in 1953.

Mummasburg

MUMMASBURG—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stover and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Hartman and family, Mrs. Jennie Hartman and the Misses Mae Wetzel, Marie and Ruth Ann Bowling were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Raffensperger, New Bloomfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond May-er and son spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Mayer's sister, Mrs. Fannie Hostetter, and family at Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Feaster, Hagerstown, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Feaster's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Rinehart.

Harmon spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Bessie Riddle, Hanover. They also visited with Mrs. Nina Kinley, Jersey Shore, who spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. Riddle.

SOLONS BLAME KENNEDY FOR OLE MISS RIOTS

By JAMES SAGGUS
JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Legislative investigators have linked the University of Mississippi desegregation riots with Kennedy political ambitions and blamed the violence on federal planning errors and tactical blunders.
The General Legislative Investigating Committee, in its formal report to Gov. Ross Barnett and the Mississippi Legislature on the Oxford crisis, termed the riots last Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 a "tragic chain of events and errors."
LISTS CHARGES
After linking the Oxford situation with national politics, the committee asserted:
That marshals were "displayed" to attract a crowd of students;
That the President illegally took control of the Mississippi National Guard, the only means the governor had of controlling crowds;
And that the marshals turned a student demonstration into a bloody riot by firing into the faces of the students as state highway patrolmen were moving them back.
If the President had exercised care in the responsibility he assumed, the report said, "The tragic events would not have occurred."

"One fact that stands out above all others," the committee said, "is that so long as the governor of the State of Mississippi was permitted to be responsible for the enforcement of law and maintenance of peace, there was no violence or injury of any kind."
The committee, which took more than 2,000 pages of sworn testimony from 90 witnesses, said the tragedy cost two lives, many injuries and millions of dollars damage needlessly. The riot followed enrollment of James H. Meredith, a Negro, in the university last fall.

Illness Cancels Pope John's Trip

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Amid reports that the health of Pope John XXIII has worsened, L'Osservatore Romano said Wednesday the Pope will not make visits late this month to Montecassino and Pompeii as planned.
The Pope held his weekly general audience today in St. Peter's Basilica. Persons who were present said he did not look well.
Rome's independent Il Tempo said the 61-year-old pontiff, who was seriously ill last fall with anemia and a stomach disorder, had suffered a relapse Tuesday that caused alarm in the Vatican.
Il Tempo said that Tuesday night Pope John showed improvement. But the newspaper said his doctors might caution him to curtail his heavy program.

CIVIL RIGHTS HEARINGS OPEN

By JOHN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Racial unrest in the South was cited by members of Congress Wednesday as pointing out the need for enactment of civil rights legislation this session.
As hearings on the administration's civil rights program began before a House Judiciary subcommittee, there were repeated references to the violence in Birmingham, Ala., as proof of the need for action.
Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the subcommittee, said the use of firehoses and dogs on Negro demonstrators, including children, had damaged the reputation of the United States throughout the world.
A hopeful note was sounded, however, by Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, who while deploring the incidents, added: "But turmoil is a sign of birth, as well as decay."
Celler said the introduction of 29 civil rights bills by members of Congress — 40 by Democrats and 49 by Republicans—indicated strong bipartisan support for enactment of a bill.
The hearings are the first to be held on a major civil rights program offered by President Kennedy's administration. The only civil rights measure passed so far during his administration is a constitutional amendment banning the poll tax. This has not been ratified by enough states to make it effective.

Abbottstown

MRS. DELLA N. BUTT
ABBOTTSTOWN — Local Lions who attended the annual state convention in Allentown Monday were President Roomsburg, Robert Sherit, James Gross, George Wehler, Charles Chubb and John Smith. The next meeting will be held at the Alland House Thursday.
Miss Madera Boszo-Ravie, Yugoslavia, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foder.
The Rev. Paul J. Aumen, C.P.P.S., Chile, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Aumen, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Terry E. Khun, Cleveland, Ohio, where he is attending a meeting.
Kenneth Haverstock, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, spent the weekend at his home.
Stuart Hafer, DeWitt, N.Y., was a weekend guest of his mother, Mrs. Edna Hafer.
Mrs. William Fortney spent the weekend at Camp Tuckahoe where she attended a workshop for den mothers.
Rev. James Justice has moved from New Oxford to the former Luther Rohrbaugh property.
Mrs. Clara Berkheimer, formering his administration is a constitutional amendment banning the poll tax. This has not been ratified by enough states to make it effective.

Letters To The Editor

May 6, 1963
Mr. Paul L. Roy, Editor
The Gettysburg Times
Carlisle Street Gettysburg, Pa.
Dear Mr. Roy:
I was delighted to see that The Times carried such a complete account of the May Fellowship luncheon meeting of the Gettysburg Council of Church Women which I spoke last Friday afternoon.
However, I was disturbed by the quotation, allegedly from my ly of Abbottstown, was admitted to the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, Sunday night.

TRAFFIC STOPS FOR OLD AUTO

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Betsy Gonner creates quite a stir when she heads for work each morning.
In fact, people stop and stare. Some of them even follow her.
For Betsy is a young girl who drives a very old car — a 1931 Model A coach.
"People usually smile and wave," she says. "One man pulled me to the side of the road once, then come on home to help me with repairs. Others stop me and ask me questions."
Betsy doesn't mind. She believes her black, box-shaped car with red wheels brings out the best in people.
"They enjoy it. It makes them speech, which stated a view diametrically opposite to that which I presented. According to your write-up, "(she) spoke on racial integration which she said is 'fundamentally wrong...'" What I said, of course, was that racial segregation and discrimination are fundamentally wrong. I assume that this was a slip of the pen or the linotype, but I do hope that your readers were not left with the impression that I am opposed to racial integration.
Sincerely yours,
Dorothy S. Bloom

Betsy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gonner, also owns a 1931 roadster, but it has been in a state of disrepair since she got it.
"It might be on the road soon," she says hopefully.
Betsy uses the car to drive to and from her work as a doctor's receptionist. She also drives it around town on weekends and takes friends for rides.
One day Betsy took the black box onto a nearby turnpike and the roof literally fell in.
"We put the front window down," she explains, "and the wind blew the inside part of the roof down on top of us."
Another time she took her boss, Dr. Robert B. McEntree, for a ride and threw him into the back seat when she started. She had forgotten to hook the seat to the floor.
Besides doing the polishing and touch-up paint tasks, Betsy also tackles minor repair jobs on her car. She has even upholstered the seats.
But the old car will probably soon depart Betsy's life. She is planning to be married in June and her fiancé has a car — a rather new one. She figures that three cars would be too many. The Model-A will have to go.

Engagement

Conrad-Livelsberger
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Livelsberger, 506 North St., McSherrystown, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Donna Carol, to Airman 2/C James P. Conrad Jr., USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Conrad, 130 Main St., McSherrystown. A June wedding is planned. Miss Livelsberger and her fiancé are graduates of Delone Catholic High School.
SEAS SEA
CHINCOTEAGUE, Va. (AP) — Mrs. Ralph Shreeves has lived her life close to the sea without being able to see the surf until recently. The only way she could get there was by boat. When the Assateague Bridge and Beach Authority opened a road and a four-span bridge across Assateague channel, Mrs. Shreeves walked the four miles to the beach and another four miles back just to take a look.
CHECK THOSE BIRTHDAYS
TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Sometimes it pays to admit your age. For instance, the Bank of Tucson makes no service charge on who are 65 or older.

Always the heart of our business

Why do most drugstores sell everything from breakfast to dance wax...? The answer is simple. It is a matter of economic necessity. Americans, thank goodness, are generally healthy and there are not enough prescriptions to keep all drugstores going. Thus, we sell a variety of merchandise. By so doing we are able to stay open and render assistance whenever and wherever it is needed. Prescription service, however, continues to be the heart of our business and we are always pleased to assist you when medication is needed.

DINAH SHORE ENDS REGULAR SHOW SUNDAY

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"It's such a wonderful feeling," says Dinah Shore, "to wake up in the morning and wonder what you are going to do today. My biggest decision is whether I will play golf or tennis. I'm living."

The songbird had returned to the NBC studios for her last hours of work before her announced retirement from television. Her final show, which will appear next Sunday, had been taped. All that remained were some commercials for her sponsor.

"I've had more finals lately," she smiled. "The final show, the final party, the final commercial. They're beginning to wonder if I'll ever leave."

WILL BE BACK

"But this is it. I've already wept buckets, so I won't do that again. And I'll be back. There's no telling how soon."

There was good reason for her sentiment: A good slice of her life has been spent in the precincts of NBC. Her television career started in 1951 with her 15-minute show. Some 444 telecasts later, she launched into a weekly hour. The hours lasted seven years, though in the last few years she has cut her pace to a dozen or so yearly.

STARTED AT 14

Before television there were movies, radio, records, etc., dating back to her debut as a singer of 14 in 1931.

"I've worked a long time," she observed. "You know, there are some things you get to do only once in your life, like watching your children grow up. I'm determined not to let those things pass me by because I was too busy working."

"From now on, the most important thing in my life is going to be my children's."

Like Red Skelton and other Hollywood personalities, Dinah now

Reviving a custom dormant since 1952, the musician spaded earth around the roots of the Louis Armstrong tree. It stands a few feet from the Amelia Earhart tree, planted by the aviatrix who vanished on a Pacific flight in 1937.

Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon says no recession in the United States is in the offing.

"On the contrary," he told the New York Chamber of Commerce in a speech Tuesday, "despite our high rate of unemployment, I believe that our present economic activity shows promise of continuing on the upswing."

Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther says he plans to retire as president of the American Red Cross next

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

EXPENSE ACCOUNTS: The Internal Revenue Service promises to consider all the complaints about its proposed new expense account regulations and hopes to get the regulations published in June.

They would take effect 30 days after publication.

The regulations will try to set down what is deductible in travel and entertainment expenses.

In two days of public hearings, which ended Tuesday, the chief refrain was that they were confusing, complex and impossible to understand.

JUNKETS: The Senate Rules Committee will consider as soon as possible a House-approved measure to tighten controls on spending abroad by traveling Congress members, says its chairman.

The House passed the measure Tuesday, 384 to 2, after little debate. The two "no" votes were cast by Reps. Ronald Cameron, D-Calif., and Roland V. Libonati, D-Ill.

POLL TAX: Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., chief sponsor of the proposed anti-poll tax amendment to the Constitution, doubts it can be ratified this year.

It chances dimmed Tuesday when the Oklahoma House rejected it, although the state Senate had approved it.

To be adopted, the amendment must be ratified by 38, or three-fourths, of the 50 states. So far, 33 state legislatures have voted for ratification.

The only state legislatures still in session that have not acted on the amendment are Missouri, New Hampshire, Maine, North Carolina and Texas.

Texas is not expected to vote for ratification. It is one of the five states which requires voters to pay a poll tax.

NO PICTURES: The Tiro's V weather satellite has stopped transmitting pictures after a record-breaking 10½ months of operations.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the shutter mechanism on the satellite's remaining camera had probably failed. The other camera went out of action July 6, 17 days after launching.

VIET NAM: A Pentagon spokesman says "the corner definitely has been turned" toward victory in South Viet Nam and U.S. officials hope the 12,000-man force there can be reduced in one to three years.

This appraisal was given Tuesday by Asst. Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester after returning with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara from a Honolulu meeting with American military and civilian officials stationed in Communist-threatened South Viet Nam.

Ed Winborn, 137-pounder from Davenport, Iowa, is Army's wrestling captain. He succeeded Mike Narvig of Decorah, Iowa.

BIZARRE WORK WINS PRIZE FOR IRATE ARTISTS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gus Brady and Henry Retzlaff Jr. got their revenge on modern art this week.

Two years ago, Brady said, he "worked myself to death for about three months" painting an entry for the Arkansas Regional Art Show, supposed to contain representational pictures of Arkansas scenes.

A work of modern art won it. This year Brady teamed up with Retzlaff—they are commercial artists who work together—and entered a piece called, perhaps with logic, "Experimentation into the Realm of Nocturnal Schizophrenic Endeavors."

The "art" was done at night, without any lights, on a 4x6-foot piece of wallboard.

The two stood the board on an outside wall, placed a 10-foot ladder in front of it and started "painting." Brady backed off and threw paint at the board, Retzlaff brushed.

SELECTED COLORS

The only real endeavor in the piece came in the selection of colors.

"We got purple for depth, orange for bright, and pink," Brady said. The pink turned out beige on the panel.

They used oil-based and water-based paint and when they tired of throwing paint, they used sand. Then they doused the whole thing with a bucket of water. It took them 30 minutes.

To observe their handiwork, the two drove a car behind the building where the panel was, and turned its headlights on the piece.

"We got some interesting effects," Brady said. "We liked it."

The work, among 220 entries,

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK AP) — Remarks that mothers get tired of hearing: "What'll we give Mom for Mother's Day this Sunday—a new ice pick or a new can opener?"

"Don't tell me we're having shish kebabs with grape leaves for dinner again? That's what I had for lunch. Can't you ever think up anything new?"

"After all, Mother, this is a new generation, and I don't want to be stick-in-the-mud. Why, there are girls in our class who have been going steady since they were 10—and here I am almost 12 years old."

"Hey, Mom, here's some good news. My big pet blacksnake in the basement has just had kittens. Now we can have snakes all over the house."

SOME PULLED PLOW

"Mothers sure have it easy today. My grandmother used to have to go out and help pull the plow when the mule got sick."

"Three of her front teeth are coming in crooked. But I think that in three years—and for $750—I can straighten them out nicely."

"Answer the phone, will you, Mom? I'm busy studying this book on the boyhood of Abraham Lincoln. What a square he was!"

"I don't care what the kids did. I've had a hard day at the office. If they need punishing, you punish them."

SOME DO HOMEWORK

"Mother, dear, could you please help me with this homework problem in algebra? While you're working it out I'll watch television. They've got a real keen program on, and I'll just die utterly if I don't get to see it."

"Stab me with a knife, Mother, shoot me with a gun—but please, please, please don't make me wear an old-fashioned dress like that to school. Everybody in class will laugh at me. I'd rather be dead, dead, dead."

"What a soft snap women have today. Why, my grandmother used to take in washing to help out the family."

"It's Mrs. Spieler on the phone, Mom. She wants to know if you can drive around and pick up three or four more parents on your way to the PTA meeting tonight."

"Please don't let Dad see my report card, Mom. He'll kill me—I just know he will."

HIDES REPORT CARD

"I'd love to help you with the dinner dishes, Mother dear, but right now I have to call Jane and ask her about this history quiz we're going to have tomorrow. You wouldn't want me to flunk it, would you?"

"So what if the meal does get cold, Mom? I ain't really hungry anyway."

"Now I want to get one thing straight once and for all: I'm the boss in this family."

"I don't see why you complain about being so tired. Why, my grandmother worked 16 hours a day, lived to be 80, and never had a labor-saving device in her life."

IN SCHOOL PLAY

Lynn Lerew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lerew, Bendersville, a senior at Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pa., plays the role of Jeff Douglas in the musical "Brigadoon" which will be presented at May Day festivities at the school Saturday at 3 p.m.

Baseball is the oldest sport at Penn State. The Nittany Lions started diamond activity in 1875.

RAIL OFFICERS ASK TO EXTEND PRIVATE JOBS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two top-ranking railroad officials — Board Chairman William White of the Delaware and Hudson and President Alfred E. Perlman of the New York Central—have asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to allow them to accept additional offices with other lines.

White is seeking permission to become board chairman of the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad; Perlman, to become a director of the Reading Railroad.

ICC approval is required for an official to hold executive posts simultaneously on two or more railroads.

JOINT TRAFFIC

Perlman told the ICC Tuesday his service as an executive of both the New York Central and the Reading Lines, with his detailed knowledge of their interchange point at Newberry Junction, Pa., would "be of inestimable value to the two railroads in the handling of their joint traffic."

White, tentatively elected chairman of the Erie-Lackawanna board May 1, noted the E-L and the Delaware and Hudson are not competitors and have no financial relationship.

Meanwhile, in a statement issued in Cleveland, Paul W. Johnston, chairman of the executive committee of the Erie-Lackawanna, said "whether or not the application is granted, Mr. White has advised me he will soon relinquish his responsibility as chief executive officer of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad in accordance with a long-determined plan."

Johnson added that White has not yet considered any changes in the status of any Erie-Lackawanna officers or employees.

Bermudian School News

By Joy Neidig and Shirley Cornman

Theresa Hopper will be participating in the Patriot-News Grand Championship Spelling Bee Finals to be held Friday, May 17, in the Harrisburg Community Theater. Having survived the local and district contests, Theresa has been named one of the 42 best spellers among 23,000 students in 200 schools. The first segment of the Bee will be conducted from 2 to 3 p.m. The second part will extend from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and will be televised over WTPA-TV, Channel 7. After the Bee has run its course, the remaining speller will become the Patriot-News Grand Champion entitled to represent the area in the National Finals in Washington, D. C., the week of June 10.

The "B" Club elected three juniors and one sophomore as officers at their last meeting of the year held Friday, May 3. New officers are president, Junior Marcine Krout; vice president, Junior Cicki Byers; secretary, Junior Sarah Moore; and treasurer, Sophomore Linda Dennis.

Boys intramural softball games are being played Thursday afternoons at 3:30 o'clock. The school's Senior Hi-Y club elected Ron Crook at president; Jim Eisenhart, vice president and secretary; Ed Cramer, treasurer; and Keith Baker, chaplain.

The Junior class is sponsoring a donkey baseball game on Friday, May 17, at 8 p.m. The game is to be played at the York Springs elementary field. The following boys will ride for the Juniors: Steve Black, Jim Eshle-

Strike Shuts Down Highway Projects

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Virtually all highway construction work in the five-county Philadelphia area was shut down Wednesday in a dispute between Local 542, International Union of Operating Engineers, AFL-CIO, and 70 contractors.

Projects affected include the Delaware Expressway, the Gustine Lake Interchange of the Schuylkill Expressway, the widening of the Roosevelt Boulevard in the Northeast and the approaches to the new Liberty Bell Race Track. Details of the dispute were not disclosed.

The contractors are members of three associations of heavy and highway contracting firms, the Contractors Association of Philadelphia and Eastern Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania Excavators Association, and the United Contractors Association.

Only a few hundred of the some 5,000 members of Local 542 are employed by the firms, which belong to these three associations.

POSTER CHILD FOR RETARDED IS MONGOLOID

AP Women's Editor

David Jordalen has been 9 a little more than three months — and look what's happened to him since his birthday:

The President of the United States talked with him in the White House and gave him a tie clasp shaped like a P-T boat.

He got chickenpox on New Year's Eve and gave it to his two younger sisters.

He learned to form sentences and he can almost write his name now.

7,000 LIKE HIM A YEAR

David is a chubby child, a little short for his age, with blond hair and laugh lines around his blue eyes.

Because of loving yet firm training at home by his parents and at school by the nuns, David at first glance doesn't look what he is: A child afflicted by mongolism, a form of mental retardation that nearly 7,000 babies are born with each year.

HAS THREE SISTERS

"People ask, 'Whatever are you going to do when you're older and he's still around?'" says Mary Jordalen, his pretty blonde mother. "But we'll still have David when the others are gone."

The others are his sisters Susan 16, Sally 6 and Nancy 5.

His father is William Jordalen, sales representative for a greeting card company. The Jordalens live in a 7-room white colonial Cape Cod house with green shutters set on a little knoll in Shrewsbury, Mass. (population about 10,000), a suburb of Worcester.

GIRLS GOT BRACELETS

David met the President as a result of being chosen poster child of the National Association for Retarded Children. After a late fall convention in Chicago, during which David turned 9 and was given a party with the biggest cake he'd ever seen, the Jordalens went to Washington.

There, sandwiched between his appointments with the Bolshoi Ballet and West Germany's Prime Minister Adenauer, President Kennedy met the Jordalens, gave David his tie clasp and the girls bracelets.

"He was charming," says Mrs. Jordalen, "and spent 15 or 20 minutes with us."

"David knows who the President is, but his greatest thrill was staying at hotels and eating in restaurants."

TOOK AWAY HIS TV

After his adventures, David went back to his special classes, taught by Sisters of Mercy, and acted a little big for his britches. He stepped on grass, stuck his tongue out.

"He wasn't controlling himself and the nuns believe in small controls," says Mrs. Jordalen. "They suggested keeping him away from TV. It took only four videoless days for him to straighten out."

COORDINATION NOT GOOD

Mrs. Jordalen is proud of David's accomplishments.

"He sits down at the table with the others, and instead of fisting his food, he holds a spoon. He'll take his plate off the table, pick up his toys. He didn't learn to talk until he was 4, but now he's making sentences, and learning his first communion."

"His coordination isn't too good, though. When we tried to teach him to catch a ball he'd put his hands out but the ball would fall through. We solved that by using a basketball."

ADVISES KEEPING AWHILE

"The whole family is thrilled with him. Sounds slumpy, doesn't it?" Mrs. Jordalen smiles a little defiantly.

"You know you're now advised, if you're happy with your little baby, keep him. Of course, some mothers can't because of health or having to work."

"When mothers ask me I say: 'If you're undecided and the child is content to stay with you, why not wait? What's the hurry to institutionalize him?'"

NOT A VEGETABLE

"When we became disturbed because David wasn't smiling at 4 months — that's an indication of slow development—a neurologist in Boston said place him immediately in an institution because he'd be nothing but a vegetable."

"We did look around, trying to do the right thing, but prices were prohibitive at private institutions, and the care they could give I could give at home. Then we found love and response in David we didn't expect was there."

HE'S VERY SOCIABLE

Mrs. Jordalen says that at 3 years doctors can give a diagnostic test to tell if the child can be trained.

"You can't give him an I.Q.

test, but there is a social test to show if he is able to be happy with people. David is very sociable and should be kept at home with children," his mother says in a pleased voice.

"We're learning all the time. At first we were too lax in discipline. Because I made so many allowances for him, I was lax with the others too. But I found that if you expect as much from him as from a normal child, you'll get a good response."

Does she ever regret keeping him?

Mrs. Jordalen looks with kindly pity at the questioner. "When David at over a year had bronchitis and had to be put in an oxygen tent I realized how much he meant. It was a real physical pain in my heart when I thought of my son. I can't imagine not having the little clown."

HE RAN AWAY

But Mrs. Jordalen doesn't want other mothers facing the same situation to think it's going to be all fun.

"There have been trials," she says. "David was always running away, a trait of little mongoloids." She had to watch him every minute and take him for walks morning and afternoon until her husband built a picket fence.

"At one time I had three in diapers, I couldn't leave anyone at home, so we'd all go to the store together. Then David would run away and someone would bring him back. No one was ever cross. Looking back, people must have been very kind to us. Now David goes to market and sits and looks at books."

BEEN ALL RIGHT SINCE

Was she worried about having a second mongoloid when she learned Sally, her next child after David, was expected?

"I had one bad day," she admits. "That was after the first visit to the doctor. I felt like a martyr. At home I sat on the top of the staircase and sobbed. I remember that Bill, my husband, was at the bottom and he asked me what was the matter. I cried. 'Oh, I hope we don't have another.'"

"I couldn't finish it. I remember he talked and I got better. All I needed was to get it out. I've been perfectly all right about it ever since."

Editor's Note:

Of the four and one-third million babies to be born this year, six or seven thousand will come into the world afflicted with Down's Syndrome, more commonly known as mongolism, says the National Association for Retarded Children, Inc.

In mongolism, a form of mental retardation, the children have slightly oriental physical charac-

300,000 New Families Join Mobile Home Trend Yearly

EDITOR'S NOTE: One out of every eight new houses being built today is a mobile home. Four million people have converted to this mode of living, with 300,000 joining the ranks each year. Is this merely a reflection of national wanderlust, or are there more basic reasons?

teristics, hence the name. They grow up widely differing in intelligence, with individual personalities.

A British neurologist first described the symptoms in 1866. Dozens of theories were advanced as to the cause until in 1959 three French scientists came up with this observation: Children afflicted with Down's Syndrome had 47 instead of the normal 46 chromosomes in their cells.

Now research is under way to map out the body processes made unusual by the extra chromosome. Improvement in prospects for growth and development of these children is now in the foreseeable future, says the association.

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — At 6:30 every morning Barbara Reed slips out of bed, quietly to let her husband sleep a few more minutes, and pads in her old mules down a tiny hall, through kitchen and living room into the front bedroom of their 10 by 45 foot mobile home.

There she pauses to make sure Karen, 5 weeks old, and Jimmy, 17 months, are sleeping peacefully. Reassured, she hurries back to make breakfast for her husband, Jim, pack his lunch and see him off to work at a nearby airplane parts factory, where he's in experimental test engineering.

HER DAYS ALIKE

Barbara's day has begun — and her days have an almost unvarying pattern. They're made up of putting children to bed, getting them up for meals and play, putting them to bed again. Cleaning takes little time in the compact mobile home.

She sees her husband in the morning, briefly in the late afternoon when he rushes home for dinner before going to classes at the University of Connecticut which keep him away until 10 at night. He's a mathematics major, and will get his degree in June, but he plans to begin work then for his master's. On week-ends he studies while Barbara keeps the children quiet.

DIFFERENT FROM TRAILER

The Reeds are one family among four million now living in mobile homes, and the number is growing at the rate of 300,000 a year.

Unlike the travel trailer, which is smaller, easily towed by the family car and is designed only for vacation and travel, the mobile home is meant to be lived in year-round. It comes completely furnished in a choice of decors, can be towed only by commercial movers and is consequently more home than mobile.

RETIRED LIKE THEM

Who lives in mobile homes? Edward L. Wilson, managing director of the Mobile Homes Manufacturers Association, says the chief appeal is to young-marrieds and older folks.

The relative low cost — and they can be FHA-financed — lets couples start out married life in their own establishment. As the children come, expandable units can be added.

For the retired and those contemplating it, the chief charms lie in the easy upkeep and companionship with others. Some mobile home parks in Florida and California are plush, swimming-pool luxury living with organized activities that appeal to an older clientele. Parks are springing up in Northern states for the "golden age" group who don't want to leave their friends but want an independent life.

Barbara and Jim Reed live in Rivermead Park, a well laid out mobile home park of 183 spaces where utilities and telephone system are underground.

Bob Burns, general manager, says: "People think the only ones who buy mobile homes are the uneducated worker with seven or eight kids. Well, we have nurses, a government inspector for defense contracts, a trust company director, a retired assistant police chief, engineers."

"If someone comes with four kids and wants to try mobile home living, I suggest they buy a house. We usually lose our families when their youngsters start growing up. They need more room and usually they're making more money by this time and can afford a regular house."

Why did Barbara and Jim decide on a mobile home?

Barbara, 24 and a dark-haired little mite of a thing at 100 pounds, has big brown eyes and a calm, patient voice.

"We've lived here since the first of September," she says, "and we'll probably stay until Jim's through school. If we go somewhere else we'll take the home with us."

"We got a mobile home because it's cheaper compared to prices in this neighborhood. We found few apartments that would allow children. That, plus the fact that in the mobile home we have something of our own."

"Many people think there isn't much room, but I think there's as much as in a four-room apartment. And there's not so much my son can get into. At my mother's, where we lived last year, he'd fall down stairs and get in the fireplace."

There've been problems. Settling affected the door and Barbara couldn't open it from the inside for a couple of days. And she finds the gun-type furnace with ducts, the same as in houses, a little dusty. She'd also like a skirt around the bottom of the home for storage.

The cordiality of neighbors is one of the great attractions for Pearl Williams, a divorcee, who has lived alone at Rivermead 14 months and swears she'll never go back to a house.

Princess In Slacks

Britain's Princess Anne, who will be 13 in August, walks the grounds of Royal Windsor Park wearing blue jeans and a ribbon in her hair. She looked like any other youth, either in the U.S. or England, as she watched her father, Prince Philip, play polo. (AP Wirephoto by cable from London)

FOR A BIRDIE

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — The new Big Cypress Golf and Country Club here had a "birdie" before the first golfer reached the first tee. The course was redesigned by its architect to preserve an eagle's nest discovered in a tree while ground was being cleared.

CALL FOR MISSIONARIES

Stamp News

Switzerland has issued two sets of stamps in its regular postal series, according to word received by the Swiss Philatelic Agency in America. One set, designed to meet the new parcel post rates, consists of four stamps. Its subjects were taken from the "Architectural Monuments" definitive series of 1960. The 36c, 70c and 2 fr. values of that series will no longer be produced. The new ones in this set are: 1.30 fr.—Woodcutters Guildhall, Biel; 1.70 fr. and 2.20 fr.—Abbey of Einsiedeln; the 2.80 fr.—Collegiate Church, Bellinzona. The second set, issued for use by the United Nations European Office, consists of two service stamps for UNCSAT (United Nations Conference on the Applications of Science and Technology for the benefit of less developed areas). Denominations are 50c and 2 fr. The design features the emblem of the UNCSAT stamps—

a cogwheel and retort—symbolizing the air and purpose of this international conference. Haiti has overprinted its Seattle Fair stamps with a spacecraft to honor the "peaceful uses of outer space." Finland, in connection with its new monetary system, has issued a new series of stamps. All the stamps issued previous to 1964 are now declared invalid for postage. All of the current stamps issued in the years 1964-1962 that do not bear the "MK" are still valid. Bhutan has issued its first commemorative series of stamps to honor the membership of that country in the Colombo Plan. The new stamps depict the ancient warrior's iron helmet beneath which is a shield flanked by a long sword, ceremonial dagger and drinking horn. The first regular postage stamps of Bhutan were introduced last year in nine different denominations.
